Calendar of Events

from May 12 through May 19, 1954

Wednesday, May 12
Food Technology Seminar: "Industrial and Occupational Hazards in Industry," Dr. Harriet L. Hardy, Room 6-130, 11:00 a.m.
Mathematics and Physics Departments. Operations Research Seminar: "Optimal Lot Size Under Uncertainty." Prof. William Taylor, Ohio State University, Room 6-214, 12:30 p.m.
Military Science Department: R.O.T.C. parade and presentation of banners and awards. Bridge Fund Drive.
Electrical Engineering Department. Seminar: "Electronic Beam as a Transmission Line." A. A. Brown, Director of Room-Type Amplifiers, MIT. Profs. Hermann Haus, Room 6-130, 4:30 p.m.
Catholic Club: "The Purpose of Life." Fr. J. Edward Nugent. Room 4-101, 8:00 p.m.

Thursday, May 13
Aeronautical Engineering, Mathematics, and Mechanical Engineering Departments. Lecture: "Boundary Layers in Three-Dimensional Flow." Prof. W. R. Sears, Director of Graduate School of Aeronautical Engineering, Cornell University College, Room 6-130, 4:30 p.m.
Physics Department. Colloquium: "Cyclotron Resonance in Germanium." Dr. Benjamin Lee, Lincoln Laboratory. Room 6-130, 4:15 p.m.
Lecture Series Committee. Film: "Der Hauptmann von Köpenick." (German comedy). Room 5-70, 1:00 p.m. and in Room-Type Amplifiers. Room 5-70, 5:00, 7:30, and 9:30 p.m. Admission: 30 cents.

Technology Christian Association. Lecture: "Science and the Human Spirit." Dr. Edward W. Wilson, Dean of the Graduate School and Director of the Sheffield Scientific School, Yale University. Hayden Memorial Library, Monday, 8:30 p.m.

Friday, May 14
Convocation for all students and staff. Rockwell Cage, 11:00 a.m. The program will include announcement of the Compton Awards for this year.
M.I.T. Model Railroad Club. Open House for M.I.T. family. Room 2-204, Monday, 2:00-5:00 p.m.
Aeronautical Engineering, Mathematics, and Mechanical Engineering Departments. Lecture: "Rolling Stall in Axial Compressors." Prof. W. R. Sears, Director of Graduate School of Aeronautical Engineering, Cornell University College, Room 6-130, 4:30 p.m.

Modern Languages Department. Lecture: "The Heart of the City." Prof. Joel S. Sert, Dean of the Graduate School of Design, Harvard University. Room 7-405, 8:00 p.m.

Saturday, May 15
Catholic Club: "Jerk Feast." Food, sports, dancing. $1.50 per person. Transportation from Walker Memorial at 12:00 noon and 1:00 p.m. Admissions: 50 cents.
Infaspal Dance Committee. Dance, Refreshments and entertainment. Walker Memorial, 8:00-12:00 a.m. Admission: $1.00 per couple.

Monday, May 17
Chemical Engineering Department. Colloquium: "Combustion in Internal-Combustion Engines." Mr. Wheeler G. Lovel, Ethyl Corporation. Room 12-182, 4:00 p.m.

Tuesday, May 18
IRE-AIIE—Student Branch. Lecture: "Feedback and Economics." Prof. L. H. Burchard. Room 6-120, 4:00 p.m.
Christian Science Organization. Subject: "Perversion and Progress." Tyler Memorial, Wednesday, May 19, 3:15 p.m.

Wednesday, May 19
Modern Language Department. Lecture Series Committee. Film: "Topaze." starring Fernandel (French comedy with English subtitles). Room 6-130, 4:30 p.m. Admission: 60 cents.
Infaspal Dance Committee. Dance, Refreshments and entertainment. Walker Memorial, 8:00-12:00 a.m. Admission: $1.00 per couple.

Thursday, May 20
Electrical Engineering Department. Colloquium: "The Analytical Approach to Heat Transfer Problems in Electrical Equipment." Mrs. Prince R. Buckland, Heat Transfer Engineer, General Electric Company. Room 6-130, 4:15 p.m. and in Room 6-214 at 6:00 p.m.
Mathematics and Physics Departments. Operations Research Seminar: "Optimization Research in Planning." Dr. A. A. Brown, Arthur D. Little, Inc. Room 6-219, 3:00-4:00 p.m.

May 24
A one-man show of sculptures, graphics, and furniture by Harry Bernstein will be exhibited in the New Gallery of the Claxton Hayden Memorial Library. The show will be open Monday, May 24, through Friday, May 28, 9:00 a.m.-9:00 p.m.; Saturday and Sundays, 12:00 noon-7:00 p.m.

Exhibitions

The final issue of the Calendar of Events will appear in THE TECH on Tuesday, May 18, with announcements for the following eight days (May 19-26). Notices, typewritten and signed, must be in the office of the editor, Rooms 7-206, not later than even on Thursday, May 15.