Varied Religious Activities Present In Boston Region

Many students of the Institute have expressed an interest in religious activities. Such students will find ample opportunity in the region around the Institute to attend church or group religious activities. The following is a list of churches and religious groups convenient for student use:

- University Lutheran Church, corner of Draper and Windsor Streets, Cambridge; First Church in Cambridge (Unitarian), Harvard Square; First Church in Cambridge (Congregational), Garden and Mason Streets; Church of the Covenant, 70 and Quincy Streets, Cambridge; Christ Church (Episcopal), Cambridge Common; Religious Society of Friends, 5 Longfellow Park, Cambridge; Harvard-Radcliffe Unitarian Church, 1155 Massachusetts Avenue, Cambridge; Old Cambridge Baptist Church, Massachusetts Avenue and Harvard Street; St. Paul's Church (Roman Catholic), Arrow and DeWolf Streets, Cambridge; First Church of Christ, Scientist, Massachusetts Avenue and Waterhouse Street; Temple Adath Israel (Orthodox), 8 Tremont Street, Cambridge; Temple Shaari Shalom (Reformed), 1117 Beacon Street, Brookline; Congregation Etz Chaim Israel (Conservative), 59 Harvard Street, Brookline.

E. Reiley Attends NSA Convention On Student Gov't

This summer, the Institute was represented at the fourth annual Student Body Presidents Conference by Eldon B. Reiley, 55, president of the Undergraduate Association. This conference, held at Ames, Iowa, brought together student leaders from over one hundred colleges for a four-day workshop on campus government problems. It was sponsored by the National Student Association, a student federation representing more than three hundred colleges.

Incomm (Continued from page 1) for parking violations.

Barnes & Noble

announces the opening of their Cambridge bookstore at the location formerly occupied by the University Low Book Exchange.

G. L. FROST CO., INC.

- AUTOMOBILE BODY REPAIRING & REFINISHING
- ELECTRIC GENERATORS
- AND SOLD REASONABLE RATES
- DEPENDABLE SERVICE

WALCOTT SALES & SERVICE

SO 6-9110

842 Broadway

Somerville, Mass.

Go to your local BARNES & NOBLE for top cash while still in demand.

BARNES & NOBLE, Inc. of Massachusetts

25A Boylston Street

Cambridge 38, Massachusetts