Editorial of The Tech:

The Tech: Two recent incidents at the West End House and the Freshman Orientation have prompted some graduate students to fear for the security of their friends.

The first incident occurred when a door remained unlocked after the power went out. Some girls were able to enter the residence hall and found it empty. One of them then turned on the lights, only to learn that the other girls had already left.

The second episode took place last Monday when a whole troop of boys entered a residence hall and searched every room and closet, looking for a lost ring.

The faculty was informed of these occurrences, and it is hoped that the situation will improve.

(Continued on page 3)