TCA To Hold Fund Drive
Goal Established At $4800

Technology Council Association has recently completed plans for its annual fund appeal to the Institute and its community. The TCA, in planning its fund raising drive, has set the goal of $4800. To help reach this goal, the entire student body is urged to contribute.

TCA-Sponsored Skeptics' Seminar Begins Tuesday

TCA's Skeptics' Seminar will be given this coming Tuesday, November 12, at 8:30 p.m., in the Student-Faculty Lounge (2S-290). Coffee will be served at 8:45 p.m. and the talks and discussion will begin at 9:00 p.m. Prof. Arthur Jaffe, co-chairman of the Department of Philosophy, will moderate the discussion. Prof. Mann, whose main interest is in the history of the Jewish people, will have an idea of the extent of the modern Jewish community. Prof. Carvel Collins, a leading literary critic and expert on William Carlos Williams, will talk on "Skepticism and the Constitution.

Awards and Honors

Mr. A. T. O. Reiche, Carnegie Fellow in creative writing at the Institute, will talk on "Theology and the American Way." Prof. O'Dea is a member of the English Department of the University of Michigan. Rabbi Pollack is the director of the Institute's Jewish chaplaincy, and Rabbi Ahron Blatt is the rabbi of the Ahron Blatt Kadisha Vanaeitya on State Road.

Francis E. Wylie Named Director of Public Relations

President James E. Killian, Jr., has announced the appointment of Francis E. Wylie, head of the Bureau of News, Inc., as Director of Public Relations at the Institute.

"The important appointment," Mr. Killian said, "reflects the need for a new approach to the communication of the achievement and the contributions of the Institute. Despite the continuous publication of reports and literature, there is a strong need for increased public awareness and understanding of the Institute's activities and contributions.

Mr. Wylie is a graduate of the University of Chicago, and has had extensive experience in the professional and educational fields. Together with Mr. J. W. Donohue, who has rendered consistently superior service as Director of Public Relations in the past, Mr. Wylie will help M.I.T. to expand its public relations efforts and present a stronger image of the Institute's activities and contributions.

"The appointment of Mr. Wylie is the result of a careful review of the Institute's public relations needs, and we are confident that he will be able to meet and exceed these needs."}

Robin Hood Club Sponsors
Drive Aimed at McCarthy

Don't throw out McCarthy-Vote Commonwealth

"The story of Robin Hood continues as we throw the amnesiac nations back to the 18th century. The campaign was initiated when we learned that a national rally for Joe McCarthy was being formed, and that this rally was receiving praise and endorsement from various quarters of the country. The Institute of Social Research, in particular, has endorsed this rally and has called for participation in the campaign.

The campaign is aimed at educating the public about the dangers of McCarthyism and the need for vigilance in matters of national security. The campaign will be conducted through various means, including literature, meetings, and public appearances.

The campaign is being led by Mr. Reiche, who has been active in public affairs for many years. Mr. Reiche is a member of the Institute of Social Research, and has been a leader in the fight against McCarthyism.

"The campaign is a vital one, and we urge all members of the Institute to support it. We believe that it is essential for the preservation of our democratic institutions and the protection of our civil liberties."

The Robin Hood Club is a group of students who are interested in political and social issues. The club has been active in various political campaigns, and has been involved in the fight against McCarthyism.

"The Robin Hood Club is proud to support this campaign, and we encourage all members of the Institute to support it as well."
