Andrew Gyorgy Completes Series Of Three Lectures

Dean Howard Thurman Speaks At Convocation Monday

Howard Thurman was the 16th President of the Boston University, who was recently listed as one of the 12 most outstanding preachers by Life magazine, will speak at the annual Christmas convocation Monday at Rockefeller Chapel.

Dean of the college, who has wide experience in the academic world, has been awarded many honors for his activities in these fields, including Fellow of the National Council on Religion in Higher Education, chairman of the board of the National Student Christian Missions League, and the chair of the board of the American Baptist Student Union.

Thurman has also written several books. His works include The Search of Truth, Deep River, Deep is the Ocean, and The Great Adventure of the Human Imagination.

Convocation Program

The evening program will be held on Monday evening, Dec. 16, at the Rockefeller Chapel. The program will feature a musical presentation, a musical program, and the presentation of the 1964 Christmas Carol.

Burton House Has Many Decorations For Its Entrances

Burton House held its banquet on Saturday night, Dec. 15, at the Burton House, and the banquet was a great success. The Burton House is a large house in the Back Bay area, and the banquet was held in the main dining room of the house. The banquet was attended by many members of the M.I.T. community, and the house was decorated with many decorations, including lights, candles, and flowers.

CARE Campaign Begins Monday; Goal $2000

The "Food Crusade," sponsored jointly by CARE and the Foreign Operations Administration, will begin at 10:30 a.m. Monday in the Memorial Union.

The Crusade is the first national campaign to provide aid to the world's hungry. The campaign is supported by the United Nations, the World Health Organization, and the United Nations Children's Fund. The campaign is expected to raise $2000.

The campaign will be held in cooperation with the United Nations Children's Fund, and the money raised will be used to purchase food for the hungry. The campaign is expected to be successful, and the goal is expected to be met.

Burton House Completes Series Of Three Lectures

The Convocation will begin with the presentation of the 1964 Christmas Carol, which will be sung by the Burton House Glee Club. The Carol will be sung in the main dining room of the Burton House, and will be followed by a musical presentation, a musical program, and the presentation of the 1964 Christmas Carol.

The evening program will be held on Monday evening, Dec. 16, at the Rockefeller Chapel. The program will feature a musical presentation, a musical program, and the presentation of the 1964 Christmas Carol.

Burton House Has Many Decorations For Its Entrances

Burton House held its banquet on Saturday night, Dec. 15, at the Burton House, and the banquet was a great success. The Burton House is a large house in the Back Bay area, and the banquet was held in the main dining room of the house. The banquet was attended by many members of the M.I.T. community, and the house was decorated with many decorations, including lights, candles, and flowers.

CARE Campaign Begins Monday; Goal $2000

The "Food Crusade," sponsored jointly by CARE and the Foreign Operations Administration, will begin at 10:30 a.m. Monday in the Memorial Union.

The Crusade is the first national campaign to provide aid to the world's hungry. The campaign is supported by the United Nations, the World Health Organization, and the United Nations Children's Fund. The campaign is expected to raise $2000.

The campaign will be held in cooperation with the United Nations Children's Fund, and the money raised will be used to purchase food for the hungry. The campaign is expected to be successful, and the goal is expected to be met.