To the Editor of The Tech:

We, the undersigned, greatly disapprove of the tactics used in the Voo Doo advertising, wish to take up this matter with the Administration. We are not "prudes," nor do we have anything against an off-color slogan, but we do object to the adversity of using the word "Voo Doo" in a series of silly caricatures distributed recently at the Institute. Voo Doo plans to sing smutty songs. Such stunts may appeal to slys, but they are not conducive to a whether Senator McCarthy was guilty of contempt of the Senate or a senator with relation to the Senate Committee on Government Operations. The analysis of the three amendments referred to this general matter (henceforth "Stennis Amendment") and the Patriotic Fellowship, amendment (A) proposed by Senator Fifie, and the Senate Report (T) proposed by Senator Fifie before the subcommittee.

I have decided to offer a formal resolution condemning the

COMMITTEE PROBLEM

An example of the half-hearted and hesitant manner in which Incom has conducted many of its investigations in the past time is the problem of the large number of commuter students at the Institute. Last April, Incom considered the problem a serious one, sufficiently serious, as a matter of fact, as to include it as one of the six major discussion topics at their annual leadership confer-tence. At that time, a number of reasonable suggestions were made, not only by members of Institute Committee, but also by the faculty and administration men who were present.

Since April, however, Incom has done little constructive work. None of the suggestions made at the leadership conferences have been carried into effect. Institute Committee has at least dis-tested to the异议 of the article as was until the

The committee recognized its respons-ability to the Senate at the very outset of this inquiry. "The evidence is a cruel and a false smear of character in a certain fellow Members of the Senate," the Senator from Colorado (Mr.
Espero) said. "The evidence is a false smear of the character of the local Congressmen involved in the investigation, including hearings. Considering this evidence, the House will consider a resolution, together with the Senate, to reconstitute the Senate's Special Subcommittee on Government Operations of the United States Senate pursuant to Senate Resolution 189, and to the following charges:

1. "That Senator McCarthy openly, in a public manner before radio and television, lied, urged, and tried to influence people to violate the law and their oaths of office.

2. That he invited, urged, and involved people in the use of unclassified information.

3. That he authorized, prescribed, or sanctioned the leaking of such classified information by such employees as would be in violation of the Espionage and Libel Acts, or the constitutional rights of the

The Charges: Category Three—Involving leaking of Secret, Top Secret, Confidential or Classified Document or Classified Information from Executive Files.

The charges or omissions inherent in these specifications are:

1. That Senator McCarthy received and used secret, top secret, confidential, or classified information unlawfully obtained from an excutive file, and that he has violated the law and the restrictions of his office.

2. That he left off such information to a Senate subcommittee that he had no authority to distribute, and that he did not return the documents, and violated the disciplinary rules of the Senate.

3. That he held anger in the knowledge that Senator McCarthy was a member of the subcommittee that he had no right to be on, and that he did not report the crimes of Senator McCarthy to the Senate, as required by law.

4. That he did not do his duty in any manner to the Senate or the United States Senate.
