Incommn Meets To Discuss Compulsory Commons Meals, Senior Ring, A Ill-Tech Dance

Compulsory Commons meals for freshmen, the All-Tech Dance, senior ring, and examinations on the students were among the topics discussed by Incommn yesterday. The first deal with revival of the election system in regard to the office of vice-president. This motion provided that the vice-president shall be chosen in a separate election and not run on a ticket with the president.

The second motion states that Incommn shall not have the power to issue the student body unless there be a majority vote in an advisory capacity.

Fifteen students of the Tech are from the first ballot for the position of president. It was made up of the ballot chairman of the house, and the committee, unprecedented a major part of the formulation of the constitution and rules for the organization.

Also at Wednesday's meeting, the committee unanimously approved a resolution of protest. It expressed itself as being strongly opposed to the institution of compulsory Commons meals for freshmen, and stated that it was not in the best interests of the students or the Institute until Dr. Faulkner takes charge.

To Succeed

Dr. James C. Dr. J. Geiger Dies, Suddenly; Was First MIT Athletic Director

Dr. James C. Geiger, 40, died suddenly of a heart attack in his home near New London last Wednesday night. He was Professor of Psychology and head of the Department of Psychology at the Institute for the past seven years, and is known as one of the leaders of the athletic system at M.I.T. to his present high position. He was named Associate Professor of Physical Education in January 1943.

The funeral will be held on Saturday, January 15, at 2 p.m., in the Eliot Congregational Church, on the corner of Church and Center Streets in New London.

Ivan J. Geiger

In memory of the late Director of Athletics Ivan J. Geiger, who held the important post of director of M.I.T. sports contests scheduled for today and tomorrow has been canceled.

Bob Biebl Elected A.A.President in Tuesday's Ballot

Interest in the Athletic Association's annual elections filled Tyler Lounge with an air of tension that usually surrounded such proceedings. A large turnout was predicted as Thursday's meeting began.

After reports, the Association undertook the selection of president, vice-president, and Intramural vice-president for the coming year. Nominees for president were Bob Biebl '56, Jack Merril '56, and Gordon Beld '56. The first vote failed to give a clear cut majority. Biebl was the winner on the third ballot and will take office at the beginning of the new term.

The voting for the two other positions was very close in contention. Bell voted over Larry Burman '56, Guy Carrier '57, and Pete Dyke '56, for the vice-presidentship. The intramural vice-president, who ran against Bill Busch '57 and Al Bell '57, was announced at this time.

The Tech banquet, open to all staff members, is to be held at 6 p.m., at the Smith House on Monday night at 7 p.m.

M. I. T. ATHLETICS

Dr. James M. Faulkner, New Medical Head

Dr. James M. Faulkner, New Medical Head

Dr. James M. Faulkner was graduated from Harvard Medical School in 1929 and received his medical degree from Harvard Medical School four years later. He was Assistant in Medicine at Johns Hopkins Medical School from 1927 to 1935. In 1936 he was named one of the top ten teachers in the United States, and in 1939 he was selected second All-Conference in athletics and physical education in the nation. He has been an active participant in the athletic system at M.I.T. since his retirement, and will continue as a consulting physician on the staff of the Institute until Dr. Faulkner takes charge.

U. S. Junior C. C. Citys Dr. Hollomon, As "Outstanding"

Dr. Herbert Hollomon '40, was recently named by the U.S. Junior C. C. as the outstanding young "M.D.". Dr. Hollomon, Schofield, New York, graduated in 1940, and has since been an active member of the Institute, particularly in the development of the athletic system at M.I.T.

In commn Meets To Discuss Compulsory Commons Meals, Senior Ring, A Ill-Tech Dance

Compulsory Commons meals for freshmen, the All-Tech Dance, senior ring, and examinations on the students were among the topics discussed by Incommn yesterday. The first deal with revival of the election system in regard to the office of vice-president. This motion provided that the vice-president shall be chosen in a separate election and not run on a ticket with the president.

The second motion states that Incommn shall not have the power to issue the student body unless there be a majority vote in an advisory capacity.

Fifteen students of the Tech are from the first ballot for the position of president. It was made up of the ballot chairman of the house, and the committee, unprecedented a major part of the formulation of the constitution and rules for the organization.

Also at Wednesday's meeting, the committee unanimously approved a resolution of protest. It expressed itself as being strongly opposed to the institution of compulsory Commons meals for freshmen, and stated that it was not in the best interests of the students or the Institute until Dr. Faulkner takes charge.

To Succeed

Dr. James C. Geiger Dies, Suddenly; Was First MIT Athletic Director

Dr. James C. Geiger, 40, died suddenly of a heart attack in his home near New London last Wednesday night. He was Professor of Psychology and head of the Department of Psychology at the Institute for the past seven years, and is known as one of the leaders of the athletic system at M.I.T. to his present high position. He was named Associate Professor of Physical Education in January 1943.

The funeral will be held on Saturday, January 15, at 2 p.m., in the Eliot Congregational Church, on the corner of Church and Center Streets in New London.

Ivan J. Geiger

In memory of the late Director of Athletics Ivan J. Geiger, who held the important post of director of M.I.T. sports contests scheduled for today and tomorrow has been canceled.

Bob Biebl Elected A.A.President in Tuesday's Ballot

Interest in the Athletic Association's annual elections filled Tyler Lounge with an air of tension that usually surrounded such proceedings. A large turnout was predicted as Thursday's meeting began.

After reports, the Association undertook the selection of president, vice-president, and Intramural vice-president for the coming year. Nominees for president were Bob Biebl '56, Jack Merril '56, and Gordon Beld '56. The first vote failed to give a clear cut majority. Biebl was the winner on the third ballot and will take office at the beginning of the new term.

The voting for the two other positions was very close in contention. Bell voted over Larry Burman '56, Guy Carrier '57, and Pete Dyke '56, for the vice-presidentship. The intramural vice-president, who ran against Bill Busch '57 and Al Bell '57, was announced at this time.

The Tech banquet, open to all staff members, is to be held at 6 p.m., at the Smith House on Monday night at 7 p.m.

M. I. T. ATHLETICS

Dr. James M. Faulkner, New Medical Head

Dr. James M. Faulkner was graduated from Harvard Medical School in 1929 and received his medical degree from Harvard Medical School four years later. He was Assistant in Medicine at Johns Hopkins Medical School from 1927 to 1935. In 1936 he was named one of the top ten teachers in the United States, and in 1939 he was selected second All-Conference in athletics and physical education in the nation. He has been an active participant in the athletic system at M.I.T. since his retirement, and will continue as a consulting physician on the staff of the Institute until Dr. Faulkner takes charge.