Dormton To Hold Elections For Important Voting Posts

by Herbert Amster '57

The Dormitory Council has announced that elections for the voting positions of Dormitory Judicial Chairman, Dormitory Treasurer, Dormitory Secretary, Librarian, and Junior Prom Committee Chairman will be held next week in Burton House. All members of the Junior Class are eligible to vote in these elections.

Amster To Head Dormton; House Comm Voting Today

Herbert S. Amster '57 was elected chairman of the Dormitory Council in last Friday's elections. He received 539 votes while his opponent, Herbert W. Katz '57, received 230. The ballots were cast in Burton House at 8:00 p.m. The results were known by 11:15 a.m. Saturday. Fifty-six percent of the dormitory population voted, Baker House turning out the largest percentage.

The separate elections for each of the housing groups, East Coop, Baker House, and Burton House, will be held today. The balloting will be open from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

In Baker House, the candidates for house chairman are Morton D. Cohen '56, Irvin C. Gross '56, and Lawrence "Mossy" Mois. Running for Baker House representative are Lon M. David '56, Charles W. Dittrich '57, and James P. Fleming '56. Edward A. Friedman '57 and Martin S. Baltes '56 are candidates for Burton House chairman, running for two-year terms.

In the voting today in Burton House, the candidates explained their positions on various issues to the dormitory residents.

For more information on these positions and the candidates, refer to the student newspaper, the "Cambridge Brookline Beacon."