BOOK SALE
SAVINGS UP TO 80%

FROM COPERNICUS TO EINSTEIN, by H. Stichter. A clear and interesting account of the life of his space and time since the 16th century. $3.00. Sale-$1.50
SEENISM, by S. MELIANS, with a foreword by O. F. GEUSEN. A fine book, and a fine work of art. $3.25. Sale-$1.50
FOUR MILLION, by T. P. WOLS. The basis of civilization traced to its beginning. $3.00. Sale-$1.50
THE HOURS AWAITS, by G. F. Mallows. $2.54. Sale-$1.00
TO THE LAIR, by P. C. RON. $9.00. Sale-$3.50
TO METHIUK, by L. V. LOCKWOOD. The great classic and definitive work in its field. The two hope volumes contain over 800,000 beautifully illustrated illustrations of the best masterpieces of painters, statues, pictures, textiles, sculpture and other important public and private collection in the world. $10.00. Sale-$4.00
TO THE VICTORY, by P. C. RON. $9.00. Sale-$3.50
TOLSTOY: A BIOGRAPHY, by E. M. A. LIVI. An eye-witness saga of the Battle of Sunda Strait and the men who fought and died in the ship war. Pub. of $5.00. Sale-$11.00
TO MRS. L. K. KATZ, Northern. $2.50. Sale-$1.00
One of the least, but the final moments. The bidding was stopped. The Axleding: C--::
D-_ K J
H-' 3 :H-9
I . . .-. ..
Opening lead: King of diamonds.

This hand came up in a rubber bridge game at the Graduate House, and was the center of a bitter argument. The bidding was strong, to say the least, but the final contract was a very, very small one. Unfortunately, south was out at the play of the hand. The opening lead heart was ruffed South.

Get away from it all! Lay down your diplomas!
WALK OVER and see the gala premiere presentation of "Tyde's Crossrings"

ONLY tickets available—Thursday, March 10, 1955—8:30 P.M.

THE KIBITZER
by Lee S. Richardson '50

TECHNOLOGY STORE
PLUS MANY OTHER SENSATIONAL BARGAINS NOT LISTED HERE

TUESDAY, MARCH 8, 1955
The Tech Page Three