Incomm Hears Reiley's Report

Eldon Reiley '55 presented the annual report of the faculty to the Institute Committee, the session being called to order by Dean of Students E. Francis Bowditch. Mr. Reiley was also introduced as a member of the faculty committee to the Committee on behalf of current students of the Institute. His report was also made, at the request of Secretary of the Committee, to the President of the Rabbinical Council, which was also invited to attend the meeting.

Mr. Reiley expressed his appreciation of the efforts of the faculty to ensure a smooth and efficient functioning of the Institute during the current academic year. He pointed out that the faculty had been successful in maintaining a high level of academic excellence and in providing a stimulating environment for all students.

In his report on the faculty, Mr. Reiley emphasized the importance of the faculty in the development of the Institute's educational program and in the promotion of research and scholarly activities. He stated that the faculty had shown a strong commitment to these goals, and that their efforts had resulted in significant improvements in the quality of the educational experience.

He further noted that the faculty had been successful in attracting students from a wide range of backgrounds, and in providing a diverse and inclusive environment for all students.

In conclusion, Mr. Reiley expressed his gratitude to the faculty for their hard work and dedication, and he urged them to continue their efforts to ensure the continued success and growth of the Institute.

The Tech, was delivered by the President to the Committee.

Activities Council Elects Bryden; Demands Osiris File Constitution

At its Wednesday afternoon meeting, Activities Council dealt with the Osiris question and held elections for the next year.

The motion, "Since Osiris appears before the Institute community as an undergraduate activity, it shall be required to file a copy of its constitution with the President," was introduced by Gene Davis '56, and passed by a vote of five to four. This motion was the result of a previous motion which requested that the council take action on the matter. They then passed a motion that the constitution should be made available to the public.

The council also discussed the old council disbanded and the new one convened. In the elections which were held, R. Philip Bryden '56, General Manager of the Tech, was elected president of the council, which will be held by 7 to 4 over Richard Jacobs '56 of CTA. Jacobs was unanimously elected vice president, Alan Budman '57 was elected faculty-representative in the same manner. Budman is a representative-at-large from Class B activities. He first reported on the Institute Committee. The next step forward for the council will be the adoption of a constitution for the student body. The council will then proceed to take action on this matter.

The other new council members are David Bedell '56, (EUS); Bob Kwons '56, Activities; Roger Wollard '56, (EUS); Bob Follett '56, (EUS); Lowell Wilson '57, Debate Society; Gordon Bell '56, (EUS); Athlete, Bob Wills '76, National Association; James Robertson '56, Class B Activities; and Herb Bishop '56, Class C Activities. Both来这里和 Tech have not sent representatives.
