The Tech

PAGE FIVE

APRIL 5, 1955

NEL 4

planning of the Conference

The Tech.

from Columbia, MIT, NYU, Harvard, and Rutgers contributed to the conference. The Tech also included some esteemed

conferees including

Professor John F. Kennedy.

Azmé Schwartz

Columbia's student government.

The group factor in the panel's discussion is depicted in a diagram. It shows that the group by Franklin's own ideas in the part. The group is composed of members of the Tech staff.

The group also meets and plans committee. The Tech staff not satisfactory agreement but instead under understanding.'

mous agreement but mutual under-and to examine his own ideas in the success was the readiness of each delement Columbia's student gov-can be obtained after admission.

making excuses, as this information admissions officers any basis for dis-

Negroes.

is desirable to exercise some kind of havent "found the right box."

expressed fear for those people who just are of the country can be prevented cease to exist. "Gentlemen's agree-nationality. Many fraternities have an Irresponsible North-South split over ity members have great pride in being be able to find "brothers" in all parts uniform national policy to insure acceptable in any other chapter. The group sentiment, however, was that affiliation to anyone. This would be to break the oaths of fraternity, assembling a "federation" of local chap-

The group agreed that the removal of written clauses was the pressing reason for change. The general exist, "gentlemen's agree-to dis out. Elimination of national fraternity contain large "old gransional; get rid of the national clause; average fraternity convention undergraduates don't have much say. Affairs are controlled by a national executive the need for a local T c

had changed as they were illuminated

Convener Testa of Bowdoin replied, "It's like a moral} and accounting for what is done with were described. Essentially a group major of opposition to an individual discrimination causes a person to lose individuals, para racial, religious, or ethnic group.

the situation depended upon the locale in the past, but he did not say why.

the Tech.

The Tech Photo--Azné Schwartz

A Delegate addressing a question towards the panel wants considered as the first place give a max. a break, but not if it's Bougie, but the middle groups are essentially a group protests. He said that national clauses are unrestricted upon the choices of local chapter members, and that local clauses are unrestricted upon future genera-

Generations. The Tech also indi-ed the Tech. In each case the as distinctively important. It is essenreliance on the" material" which the delegates had only one unanimous

The panel discussed ways of elim-ning discrimination. It was pointed out that while school authorities are presumably, students can exist an idea which has changed his name is important. It is important for Professor Deutsch countered that the last name of the individual is spelling of their name, and he ex-the people for those people who Just was general agreement that it desirable to exercise some kind of federation. The conference hoped educate people on the basis of as to keep a motion from reach-was

The problem of what discrimination

The Tech

The Tech.

the conference is consid-

The Tech.

the Tech.

The Tech.

The Tech.

The Tech.

The Tech.

The Tech.

The Tech.

The Tech.

The Tech.

The Tech.

The Tech.

The Tech.

The Tech.

The Tech.