see the article? He and the rest of your student governing body did a magnificent job of planning and carrying out the conference and I feel that everyone who attended must have benefited from it.

Your paper did a fine job of coverage on the conference. The reporters and photographers went about their work quietly and efficiently and did a good job. You can be very proud of the week that they did. Never have I before, in any college campus, seen such fine cooperation and unity in any student-planned project. Everyone connected with the conference deserves a pat-on-the-back.

I sincerely hope that other schools follow your lead and that more conferences of this type are planned and carried out. It was very profitable and enjoyable. Speaking in behalf of Ripon’s three delegates—David Harris, Steve de Naou, and myself—I wish to thank you for your hospitality and free conference. We were very proud to have attended.

at the Benjamin College Festival it created a stir of comment but the war cut short its growing reputation. Until this time there has been no other large college production in the East, and this is the first time the composer’s original music has been available during the present operations of TCA’s Work Division.
