The Tech

Yearling Runners
Best Gov. Dummer

Overall strength proved the deciding factor last Wednesday as the freshmen track team took a close 64-28 to 521 victory from Governor Dummer. The Engineers took 7 out of the 13 first and followed up with superior length to take ten seconds.

Rory Ernberger was the leading performer for the Frosh as he blanked up three seconds and a first. He took the 100 Yard Dash with a time of 10.6 seconds and had seconds in the 220 Yard Dash and the High and Low Jump.

The remaining wins were taken by Ed Carter with an excellent time of 14.2 in the Mile Run, Glen Bernstein with a 2.64.9 in the 880, Tom Mc- Clamann In the Pole Vault, Moore in the Discus, Steve Huzer in the High Jump, and John Kipp in the Broad Jump.

This was the first dual meet of the season for the predominating Frosh team. Tomorrow they will entertain Tufts and Bowdoin in a triangular meet on the home track.

Merrittsmen Split With Coast Guard.
Down Suffolk; Then Lose To B.C.

Moving on into the heart of the season, the Beaver batmen played four games in five days last week and managed to come out even with two wins and two losses. The Merrittsmen started off with a doubleheader against the Coast Guard Academy in New London, Conn., on Saturday, March 16. After playing Sunday and Monday, they took on Suffolk at Briggs Field on Tuesday, and Boston College away on Wednesday.

The Engineers started off fast against the Coast Guardmen as pitcher Al Hansen '85, trimmed a 3 to 2 in seven innings. Houser helped his armause considerably as he drove in all three runs with three singles and three times at bat. Short- stop Pete Peterson '65, and center- fielder Ed Newhall '55, each got each of their two singles for four runs in all.

The Beavers didn't fare as well in the second game as starting pitcher Dick Skovdahl '56, had control trouble, yielding five walks in the second. The Beavers batsmen faltered also, getting only two hits. The Merritts scored four runs in their last two innings.

Bouncing back into the win column behind the strong pitching of Murry Roxy Ernsberger '56, the Merrittsmen blanked Suffolk 9 to 2. Roxy allowed only four hits and struck out thirteen in a six-inning game for the full distance for his first win. Tomo Morita had twelve good pitches and a very strong performance.

In the game against Boston College, the Merrittsmen were soundly defeated by 12 to 2. The Engineers had two hits which produced no runs as all attempts to score fell short.
