The Tech Makes Changes In Staff

At a general staff meeting on Wednesday, September 21, M. Philip Brydes '56, general manager of the Paper (P.R.C.), announced several new staff appointments for the full term.

Frank J. Burns '56, a 3-year-old computer generating major and president of Phi Kappa fraternity, has been named to the managing board as managing editor, his predecessor David C. Ritchison '56 in this position. Burns was formerly features editor of the Tech.

In new junior board appointments, Robert H. Rosenbaum '57 has been named Night Editor, John A. Fried "77, a member of the Senior Class, has been made copy editor and is gaining experience on the staff.

One of the changes in staff will be the employment of a new student assistant, who will be named as the student assistant to the managing editor.

The motion picture, more than a tribute to the memory of the men who fought in the Second World War, is a tribute to the men who died in the service of their country. The motion picture, "The Dam Busters," was shown at the Institute Theater on the campus.

The motion picture, "The Dam Busters," was shown at the Institute Theater on the campus.

The Tech Makes Changes In Staff

At a general staff meeting on Wednesday, September 21, M. Philip Brydes '56, general manager of the Paper (P.R.C.), announced several new staff appointments for the full term.

Frank J. Burns '56, a 3-year-old computer generating major and president of Phi Kappa fraternity, has been named to the managing board as managing editor, his predecessor David C. Ritchison '56 in this position. Burns was formerly features editor of the Tech.

In new junior board appointments, Robert H. Rosenbaum '57 has been named Night Editor, John A. Fried "77, a member of the Senior Class, has been made copy editor and is gaining experience on the staff.

One of the changes in staff will be the employment of a new student assistant, who will be named as the student assistant to the managing editor.

The motion picture, more than a tribute to the memory of the men who fought in the Second World War, is a tribute to the men who died in the service of their country. The motion picture, "The Dam Busters," was shown at the Institute Theater on the campus.

The motion picture, "The Dam Busters," was shown at the Institute Theater on the campus.

The Tech Makes Changes In Staff

At a general staff meeting on Wednesday, September 21, M. Philip Brydes '56, general manager of the Paper (P.R.C.), announced several new staff appointments for the full term.

Frank J. Burns '56, a 3-year-old computer generating major and president of Phi Kappa fraternity, has been named to the managing board as managing editor, his predecessor David C. Ritchison '56 in this position. Burns was formerly features editor of the Tech.

In new junior board appointments, Robert H. Rosenbaum '57 has been named Night Editor, John A. Fried "77, a member of the Senior Class, has been made copy editor and is gaining experience on the staff.

One of the changes in staff will be the employment of a new student assistant, who will be named as the student assistant to the managing editor.

The motion picture, more than a tribute to the memory of the men who fought in the Second World War, is a tribute to the men who died in the service of their country. The motion picture, "The Dam Busters," was shown at the Institute Theater on the campus.

The motion picture, "The Dam Busters," was shown at the Institute Theater on the campus.

The Tech Makes Changes In Staff

At a general staff meeting on Wednesday, September 21, M. Philip Brydes '56, general manager of the Paper (P.R.C.), announced several new staff appointments for the full term.

Frank J. Burns '56, a 3-year-old computer generating major and president of Phi Kappa fraternity, has been named to the managing board as managing editor, his predecessor David C. Ritchison '56 in this position. Burns was formerly features editor of the Tech.

In new junior board appointments, Robert H. Rosenbaum '57 has been named Night Editor, John A. Fried "77, a member of the Senior Class, has been made copy editor and is gaining experience on the staff.

One of the changes in staff will be the employment of a new student assistant, who will be named as the student assistant to the managing editor.

The motion picture, more than a tribute to the memory of the men who fought in the Second World War, is a tribute to the men who died in the service of their country. The motion picture, "The Dam Busters," was shown at the Institute Theater on the campus.