Tech Booters Rout Brandeis
For 2-0 Victory

During the second game of the annual Tech-Brandeis afternoon at Brandeis, the Be-vegetary soccer team season Tue, day afternoon at Bran-

The Tech begins control of the ball with the opening face off, but they were unable to break the blocking until later in the period, when center-forward Cel Almolda 58 headed one past both Brandeis' fullbacks and the goalie, after receiving a pass from left wing Herb Johnson 58. The Brandeis defense kept the Beavers from scoring any more in the first period, but early in second quarter Carlos Gonzales 57, blasted one home with an assist from Almolda. Shortly thereafter, Almolda broke past the home team defense to score another. But Brandeis scored the final goal of the first half when he tallied on a penalty kick late in the second period.

The Johnson to Almolda combination clicked again to open the second half's scoring. Gonzales followed with his second goal on an assist from Bernard Blaschke 56, Kurt Simon 56, in at left half, scored the final tally of the period on a beautiful blast from outside twenty yards out. Milan Triantafyllides 56, scored the first goal of the fourth half's scoring. Gonzales followed with his right wing position, and Almolda finished off the afternoon with his fourth and final goal, unassisted.

I am opposed to The Tech's officializing—i.e. believe that a newspaper must be clayable to be of value. I do disagree, however, of self-definition in a news report; i disagree of one person's opinions entering into print and completely coloring a report. Obvious bias, as in this article,
