Fumbles Stall Freshman Offense; Gridders, Thayer In Scoreless Tie

Opening their preparatory season for the '57 Freshman football tour- nee was held to a somber tie Sat- urday afternoon by a weak Thayer team. Playing on the Thayer field in Braintree, the Freshman nonoj- oine and the ball, but due to frequent failing, they were unable to push the ball to the end zone. The obvious Freshmen strong point was in defense which held the home team to fifty yards on the ground and six points, the total of only four first downs. What per- haps best illustrates the supremacy of the Tech defense is that the Freshman running backs were to户外 pass once, and that late in the second quarter with a Tech punt. The factor which kept the Freshman from scoring several times was their twenty-three fumbles. The line was opening holes regularly, thus elimi- nation of their restrictive clauses to all schools in this specific plan for removal of such discriminatory policies.
