At its meeting last Wednesday, the Dormitory Council approved its own budget and those of the three dormitories. It also heard its committee's recommendations on the disposal of the duPont bequest, and approved the purchase of The Park for dorm residents for another year.

The budget, which was presented by treasurer Herb Katz '56, was essentially the same as last year's. It provided each House Committee with $2.75 per resident, as has been the case in recent years.

The East Campus budget, whose major new expenditure is for a new telephone system, was presented by Jesse Rothstein '56. Burton's budget, which includes a stipulation that the East Campus Informal Dance Committee meet Wednesday, was presented by Bruce Bredehoft '56. The Baker budget was presented by Jared Bashe '56.

The East Campus budget, whose major new expenditure is for a new telephone system, was presented by Jesse Rothstein '56. Burton's budget, which includes a stipulation that the East Campus Informal Dance Committee meet Wednesday, was presented by Bruce Bredehoft '56. The Baker budget was presented by Jared Bashe '56.

The East Campus budget, whose major new expenditure is for a new telephone system, was presented by Jesse Rothstein '56. Burton's budget, which includes a stipulation that the East Campus Informal Dance Committee meet Wednesday, was presented by Bruce Bredehoft '56. The Baker budget was presented by Jared Bashe '56.

Two motions which now await a decision were made, among them: the main buildings—buildings two, twoA, and three and the 5:15 room. All were rejected by the Council.

Inasmuch as the petition was presented by Jesse Rothstein '56, Burton's budget, which includes a stipulation that the East Campus Informal Dance Committee meet Wednesday, was presented by Bruce Bredehoft '56. The Baker budget was presented by Jared Bashe '56.

The East Campus budget, whose major new expenditure is for a new telephone system, was presented by Jesse Rothstein '56. Burton's budget, which includes a stipulation that the East Campus Informal Dance Committee meet Wednesday, was presented by Bruce Bredehoft '56. The Baker budget was presented by Jared Bashe '56.

Two motions which now await a decision were made, among them: the main buildings—buildings two, twoA, and three and the 5:15 room. All were rejected by the Council.

Inasmuch as the petition was presented by Jesse Rothstein '56, Burton's budget, which includes a stipulation that the East Campus Informal Dance Committee meet Wednesday, was presented by Bruce Bredehoft '56. The Baker budget was presented by Jared Bashe '56.

The East Campus budget, whose major new expenditure is for a new telephone system, was presented by Jesse Rothstein '56. Burton's budget, which includes a stipulation that the East Campus Informal Dance Committee meet Wednesday, was presented by Bruce Bredehoft '56. The Baker budget was presented by Jared Bashe '56.

Two motions which now await a decision were made, among them: the main buildings—buildings two, twoA, and three and the 5:15 room. All were rejected by the Council.