Checks you out in style

Van Heusen"bankers checks"... a rich-looking casual wardrope idea

On Wall Street or Fraternity Row, Van Heusen checks you out when you make an effort to feel as an industrial lion's son. These very special checks come in 4 colors that lock definitely upper-bracket... at down-to-earth prices that won't tax you at all. Shirts, in many collar styles, $3.95; with handsome matching neckties at only $1.50.

November Reader's Digest doesn't miss:

28-PAGE CONDEMNATION FROM $3.50 BEST-SELLER: "CAPTAIN DREYFUS." "The Dreyfus Affair," in which France branded an innocent man a traitor, is the story of the hysteria-ridden case which France branded an innocent man a traitor, and bought each month by more than 18 million people. By "I am told that the Digest is now published in 12 languages, and is read in all parts of the world," it is definitely a novel. Hollywood made a movie of this Novel. Essentially it's as follows: it is the story of the hysteria-ridden case which France branded an innocent man a traitor, and bought each month by more than 18 million people. By "I am told that the Digest is now published in 12 languages, and is read in all parts of the world," it is definitely a novel. Hollywood made a movie of this Novel. Essentially it's as follows...

BANKERS Checks should be made payable to MIT Humanities Series. The following exhibits will be on display in the North Corridor Cases of the Chemistry Department, as Documenta "From Man to History; Science, Technology and Discovery"; and "A Moment Anxious". An exhibition of photographs and buildings models entitled "Building in the Netherlands" will be on display in the New Gallery of the Chemistry Department, November 9-27. Hours: Monday through Friday, 9 a.m.-5 p.m., Saturday and Sunday, 2-5 p.m. Check should be made payable to MIT Humanities Series. Under a new plan of publication, the Calendar of Events is distributed to the student members of the society, with students acting as directors as well as performers and crew. For their initial attempt, they chose two quite different plays, one a serious drama and the other a classic harlequinade; directors were Al Weiss and Hal Franklin, members of the group since its reorganization. As was done Friday evening, the criticism is only a part of the audience's reaction. The group took advantage of this opportunity to quiz the audience as to their reactions and the success of the play. The successor to the group, Herbert Anster '64, chairman of Dances, attended the weekend proceedings, stressing that the success of such a project is in bringing the ideas presented back to the various committees and applying them for the remainder of the year. CALENDAR OF EVENTS (Cont. from page 2) 10:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Room 10-273, 4:00 p.m. Room 2-700. Monday through Sunday, 2:00-5:00 p.m. Chemistry Department, Harvard-MIT Physical Chemistry Colloquium: "Stimulating Biorefineries of Semi-Rigorous". Professor Peter Paul Stoy, University of Massachusetts and Wase University, Harvard, Mallakowski MB-73, 8:00 p.m. EXHIBITS The following exhibits will be on display in the North Corridor Cases of the Chemistry Department, as Documenta "From Man to History; Science, Technology and Discovery"; and "A Moment Anxious". An exhibition of photographs and buildings models entitled "Building in the Netherlands" will be on display in the New Gallery of the Chemistry Department, November 9-27. Hours: Monday through Friday, 9 a.m.-5 p.m., Saturday and Sunday, 2-5 p.m. Check should be made payable to MIT Humanities Series. Under a new plan of publication, the Calendar of Events is distributed to the student members of the society, with students acting as directors as well as performers and crew. For their initial attempt, they chose two quite different plays, one a serious drama and the other a classic harlequinade; directors were Al Weiss and Hal Franklin, members of the group since its reorganization. As was done Friday evening, the criticism is only a part of the audience's reaction. The group took advantage of this opportunity to quiz the audience as to their reactions and the success of the play. The successor to the group, Herbert Anster '64, chairman of Dances, attended the weekend proceedings, stressing that the success of such a project is in bringing the ideas presented back to the various committees and applying them for the remainder of the year. CALENDAR OF EVENTS (Cont. from page 2) 10:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Room 10-273, 4:00 p.m. Room 2-700, 4:30 p.m. Chemistry Department, Harvard-MIT Physical Chemistry Colloquium: "Stimulating Biorefineries of Semi-Rigorous". Professor Peter Paul Stoy, University of Massachusetts and Wase University, Harvard, Mallakowski MB-73, 8:00 p.m. EXHIBITS The following exhibits will be on display in the North Corridor Cases of the Chemistry Department, as Documenta "From Man to History; Science, Technology and Discovery"; and "A Moment Anxious". An exhibition of photographs and buildings models entitled "Building in the Netherlands" will be on display in the New Gallery of the Chemistry Department, November 9-27. Hours: Monday through Friday, 9 a.m.-5 p.m., Saturday and Sunday, 2-5 p.m. Check should be made payable to MIT Humanities Series. Under a new plan of publication, the Calendar of Events is distributed to the student members of the society, with students acting as directors as well as performers and crew. For their initial attempt, they chose two quite different plays, one a serious drama and the other a classic harlequinade; directors were Al Weiss and Hal Franklin, members of the group since its reorganization. As was done Friday evening, the criticism is only a part of the audience's reaction. The group took advantage of this opportunity to quiz the audience as to their reactions and the success of the play. The successor to the group, Herbert Anster '64, chairman of Dances, attended the weekend proceedings, stressing that the success of such a project is in bringing the ideas presented back to the various committees and applying them for the remainder of the year. CALENDAR OF EVENTS (Cont. from page 2) 10:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Room 10-273, 4:00 p.m. Room 2-700, 4:30 p.m. Chemistry Department, Harvard-MIT Physical Chemistry Colloquium: "Stimulating Biorefineries of Semi-Rigorous". Professor Peter Paul Stoy, University of Massachusetts and Wase University, Harvard, Mallakowski MB-73, 8:00 p.m. EXHIBITS The following exhibits will be on display in the North Corridor Cases of the Chemistry Department, as Documenta "From Man to History; Science, Technology and Discovery"; and "A Moment Anxious". An exhibition of photographs and buildings models entitled "Building in the Netherlands" will be on display in the New Gallery of the Chemistry Department, November 9-27. Hours: Monday through Friday, 9 a.m.-5 p.m., Saturday and Sunday, 2-5 p.m. Check should be made payable to MIT Humanities Series. Under a new plan of publication, the Calendar of Events is distributed to the student members of the society, with students acting as directors as well as performers and crew. For their initial attempt, they chose two quite different plays, one a serious drama and the other a classic harlequinade; directors were Al Weiss and Hal Franklin, members of the group since its reorganization. As was done Friday evening, the criticism is only a part of the audience's reaction. The group took advantage of this opportunity to quiz the audience as to their reactions and the success of the play. The successor to the group, Herbert Anster '64, chairman of Dances, attended the weekend proceedings, stressing that the success of such a project is in bringing the ideas presented back to the various committees and applying them for the remainder of the year. CALENDAR OF EVENTS (Cont. from page 2) 10:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Room 10-273, 4:00 p.m. Room 2-700, 4:30 p.m. Chemistry Department, Harvard-MIT Physical Chemistry Colloquium: "Stimulating Biorefineries of Semi-Rigorous". Professor Peter Paul Stoy, University of Massachusetts and Wase University, Harvard, Mallakowski MB-73, 8:00 p.m. EXHIBITS The following exhibits will be on display in the North Corridor Cases of the Chemistry Department, as Documenta "From Man to History; Science, Technology and Discovery"; and "A Moment Anxious". An exhibition of photographs and buildings models entitled "Building in the Netherlands" will be on display in the New Gallery of the Chemistry Department, November 9-27. Hours: Monday through Friday, 9 a.m.-5 p.m., Saturday and Sunday, 2-5 p.m. Check should be made payable to MIT Humanities Series. Under a new plan of publication, the Calendar of Events is distributed to the student members of the society, with students acting as directors as well as performers and crew. For their initial attempt, they chose two quite different plays, one a serious drama and the other a classic harlequinade; directors were Al Weiss and Hal Franklin, members of the group since its reorganization. As was done Friday evening, the criticism is only a part of the audience's reaction. The group took advantage of this opportunity to quiz the audience as to their reactions and the success of the play. The successor to the group, Herbert Anster '64, chairman of Dances, attended the weekend proceedings, stressing that the success of such a project is in bringing the ideas presented back to the various committees and applying them for the remainder of the year.

Van Heusen "bankers checks"... a rich-looking casual wardrobe idea

On Wall Street or Fraternity Row, Van Heusen checks you out when you make an effort to feel as an industrial lion's son. These very special checks come in 4 colors that lock definitely upper-bracket... at down-to-earth prices that won't tax you at all. Shirts, in many collar styles, $3.95; with handsome matching neckties at only $1.50.