Inscomm Hears Activities Council Report: TEN Placed on Probation For One Year

After long and heated debate, Inscomm, at its Wednesday meeting, approved the Activities Council report on its probation recommendation. The report was placed on a probationary status for a period of one year, at the end of which time this action shall be reviewed. Members of the council considered it necessary to place TEN on probation in order to repair past damage.