FAMILIAR QUOTATIONS $11.00

One of the basic reference handbooks every home library. This Thirteenth and Centennial Edition a... and 25th anniversaries, which have come to be familiarly have been added, 1920-1950. More, I have found, is more manageable than ever before, it is more efficient, for browsing, for finding what you need for settling arguments.

THE OPEN HEART $12.50

A book of people and places, of travel at home and abroad--an autobiographical volume by the editor of the Saturday Review. In the afterword of his Open Heart, Mailer will argue that, in his book, he has not been the only one to be moved to write, that the average reader will be moved as well.

SHANNON'S WORLD ATLAS $13.95

The Shannons' third edition, the book has been expanded to include over 3000, 2500000 and cross-indexed, making a vast store of information readily available. A work for every age.

BHALE'S AMERICAN ATLAS $12.95

The world as it is today, in colors, proportions and scale. The handbook known to science is described in the text, so that particular features can be reviewed and framed without complicating the binding.

GARDENS FOR PEOPLE $9.00

A beautiful gift for the home owner. A sound landscape architect and designer has put together an instructive book that reflects for practicality and interest of the home gardener and his family.

HAMILTON'S NEW INTERNATIONAL CHARTER WORLD ATLAS $8.95

A new idea in alphabeticalizing--a world atlas free from legend labels, full color, full data, all steel plates between two layers of vinyl plastic. The world is compiled on a new basis of distribution of the new plates, and is illustrated with 1000 color illustrations and many helpful maps.

OUT FROM THE SEA $7.50

Anne Mounts Lindbergh

$7.50

8th Editio, Revised and Enlarged

A book of true history, vision, and dream that has altered the hearts and minds of every reader. Alone on a journey from the responsibilities of family and home. Miss Lindbergh, review her life, now that she now reflects in a series of essays. She expresses light that true emotions, and delicate perception on problems that interest modern--women and men--the marriage relationship in its various stages. The need for solitude in contemporary life. The adjustment to middle age, the duties we owe not only to others but to ourselves. Now available in a beautiful gift edition, with full-color illustrations, handsomely bound and boxed.

MARJORIE MCDONOGH $14.95

Herman Finck

$14.95

A Century of Punch Cartoons Ed. by R. E. Williams of Punch

$14.95

100 pages of beautiful black-and-white reproductions of the greatest cartoons ever created. A well-known observer, John Kieran, describes the meaning of each as well as the identity of the artists. There is no magnumopus to be compared with this book. "A book that is not just about Punch and cartoon art, but about life itself."

A TREASURY OF THE FAMILIAR A SECOND TREASURY OF THE FAMILIAR $12.95

Ed. by Ralph L. Feild

$12.95

A double treasury of traditional and fantastic stories, more than 100 stories of every kind. Every member of the family will enjoy these stories--they are pure gold. The contributors range from Maupassant to Runyon, from Flaubert, old and new.

THE JEROME KEEN SONG BOOK $7.00

Ed. with a Foreword by Jerome Kern

$7.00

If you want to sing, if you want to sing from a galax, try the piano, or just look, here's the book for you. 40 big songs with beautiful piano arrangements, including the words and music of 40 Kern songs. It is a comprehensive, well-copied book, with big music, big sound, big voice and big passion--big church.

COURSES AT THE UNIVERSITY OF ANGELS $13.95

C浒din Starobin

$13.95

Panorama of America -- city and family, the American city of the future, the past, and the present in the story of the American city. A big work of the most influential artist of our time.

THE TOLLBON'S WEIR $7.50

Marvin F. Schmitz & Dorothea Brown $13.95

Homesteads and land grants, mar-

The tolls are paid, life has begun, and the lore of the tolls is the lore of a human history. He traces the lives of five generations through three centuries, in a spell-binding tour of England, Norway, and Virginia. A (collection of rectures, many in full color.

THE DICKENSSIAN MOOF $7.50

Thomas B. Costain

$7.50

The true and intimate personal story of Roy Rogers, "King of the Cowboys" and his wife, Dale Evans Rogers and their family's Christmas festivities.

THE TRUE STORY OF HAPPINESS $2.95

Ralph Waldo Trillin

$2.95

The great evangelist presents his vision of happiness to the modern world, and his direct teaching on fun today, as well as the look at fun today, as well as the look at fun in the light of literature.-Signs of the times to the present.

THE WORLD WE LIVE IN $13.95

Ed. by Bernard S. Myers

$13.95

A magnificent gift--the most complete, wonderful of its kind. The only one ever published in one Life-size, full-color, full-sized illustrations, including huge photographs, drawings, and full-color panoramic scenes, now in the book trade this time available in an unabridged, modern English translation of the work of the most important contemporary artist.

LIVING MAMMALS OF THE WORLD $19.50

John Seideroth

$19.50

A complete, beautiful animal world in life. Every living mammal known to science is described with authority and set by the leading contributing scientists, and, among, The modern edition: Over 15000 illustrations, including 1000 color paintings, now in the book trade this time available in an unabridged, modern English translation of the work of the most important contemporary artist.

REMEMBERING THE CATSPLAYS AND SONGS $19.50

C:1ameron Hauley

$19.50

This set is a perfect example of the greatest talent and artistry of an era, with full-color, character drawings of the main characters of the medium.

THE NEWMAN-FASHEFS SOGGOON COOKBOOK-SCHOOL COOK BOOK $4.95

Ralph L. Itoods

$4.95

For the beginner and the practicing expert, over 3000 recipes, with full color, full-size, full-sized drawings. The American housewife's favorite book, good cooking almost sixty years, completely revised and updated to date with the modern kitchen's time-saving methods.

THE EASY WAY TO PLAY $13.00

The perfect after-dinner book, it tells you everything, from how to play cards and bridge to etiquette for making calls at social functions. A large and varied collection of menus, recipes, wine information, baking, pickling, canning, gardening, and all the kitchen hints. The emphasis is on joyful eating.

ENCYCLOPEDIA OF PAINTING $15.95

Ed. by Bernard S. Myers

$15.95

This is really one book in two: a reference work of first-class material, a reference work, making it a worth-while investment. 5000 personal entries, many with full-color paintings, full-color reproductions, engravings, woodcuts, etc., etc., included with 10000 pictures, many in full color.

BUY BOOKS FOR CHRISTMAS