Tie For Swimmers

Fighting down to the wire MIT finished in a 42 to 42 deadlock against Wesleyan Wednesday night. Not as satisfying as a win would have been to the town, it was consoling recalling the linkage that the task men took from Wesleyan last year. This meet was really a coaches battle. There were several spots where a change in the lineup of swimmers might have resulted in that one extra winning point. Tech started off with Al Hortman '58, Paul Cotter '57, and Frank Sala '57 winning the 800 yard medley relay in 8:26. Sala was checked at 5:56, his best time to date this year.

Dave Byron did his usually fine job in diving, and scored 8 more points for Tech. This placed MIT ahead 22 to 19 at the end of the diving. However Wesleyan picked up 7 points as Veeck only placed third in the 100 free. We tied the meet up to the final relay. This gave MIT only 3 points, leaving the meet up to the final relay. Wesleyan just used out Veeck, Smith, Gerson, and Duane who were swimming the race for us. This lifted the meet up 45-42, a victory in swimming. Tech's next meet is with UConn on Jan. 7.

JV Hoopsters Over Newton JC, Harvard

Playing at Newton High School last Thursday night, the Tech Junior Varsity basketball team easily beat a weak Newton Junior College squad, 68 to 60. In evening's season's record at one win and one loss, the JV's piled up a 20 to 13 lead by the end of the first quarter and were never again seriously threatened until early in the fourth quarter, when Newton closed the gap to 3 points. The Junior Reavers fought back and was with a solid 7 point lead. Center Art Wilkes and forward Marty Goldenstein sparkled the engineers with 38 and 19 points respectively, with the latter picking up a .500 shooting percentage.

The JV's kept up their winning ways as they edged out a smile as they determined Harvard Junior Varsity, quieted Tuesday night, 62 to 6. The score was kept even until midway in the first half, as the Crimson reeled out in front with a 6 point lead. The Cantabs went ahead by one point; then in the second period, but a clutch three shot by Goldsmith, and two free times by center Dave Rudykewicz in a row, later, gave Tech the win.
