Fellowships

(Continued from page 2)
carry a cash stipend of 2,600 Austrian schillings (approximately $100), enough to cover room and board as well as tuition and incidental expenses. One travel payment of 1,400 Austrian schillings (approximately $50) will be offered to each of the 41 award winners. Applicants should be responsible for all other expenses, including round-trip travel. Applicants may, if they desire, apply for Fulbright travel grants to cover some of the costs of international travel.

The awards may be used for study at an Austrian university or institution of higher learning in all fields, including history, social sciences, languages, literature, and other liberal arts subjects.

The Danforth Foundation, an educational trust fund, wants to stimulate applications for the fifty-three (3565) Danforth Grants open to college seniors and recent graduates who are preparing for college teaching or planning to enter graduate school in September, 1956, for their first year of graduate study. The Foundation welcomes applicants from the areas of Natural and Biological Sciences, Social Sciences, Humanities, and all fields of specialization.

The maximum annual grant for single Fellows is $1,000; for married Fellows, $2,400 with an additional stipend of $500 for children. Students without financial need are limited to apply. A Danforth Fellow is allowed to carry other scholarship appointments, such as Rhodes, Fulbright, Watson, Marsden, etc., concurrently with his Danforth Fellowship. Any complaints or comments for the administration should be directed to the Director of the Fellowship. The Foundation looks forward to hearing from all members of the AA within a few weeks following the meeting, and it is to its best interest to receive the applications in advance of the meeting. The Foundation welcomes applicants from the areas of Natural and Biological Sciences, Social Sciences, Humanities, and all fields of specialization.

Scholars are invited to apply for Danforth Fellowship. The deadline for applications is February 1, 1956. The Danforth Foundation will send a letter to all interested parties.

(Continued from page 1)

Skiiers Take Keane Top To Schwaegler First In Conference

Tich's skiers continued in their happy form to capture first place in the Keene Teachers' College Invitational Meet the last weekend, winning the following standings:

MIT's Dick Schwaegler '57 won the individual trophy, having finished first in both the downhill and slalom races. Eric Bodtker '57 took fourth position, and Tony Books '56 finished eighth.

Having lost in the final meet, the MIT men's skiers are now on the top of the New England Conference. But this is presently holding down second place in the league. This coming weekend the Tech men will try to keep up their record; teams have entered in both the Midwestern Canoe and in the Tufts Invitational Meet.

(Continued from page 1)

The Tech's skiers continued in their happy form to capture first place in the Keene Teachers' College Invitational Meet the last weekend, winning the following standings:

MIT's Dick Schwaegler '57 won the individual trophy, having finished first in both the downhill and slalom races. Eric Bodtker '57 took fourth position, and Tony Books '56 finished eighth.

Having lost in the final meet, the MIT men's skiers are now on the top of the New England Conference. But this is presently holding down second place in the league. This coming weekend the Tech men will try to keep up their record; teams have entered in both the Midwestern Canoe and in the Tufts Invitational Meet.

(Continued from page 1)

The Tech's skiers continued in their happy form to capture first place in the Keene Teachers' College Invitational Meet the last weekend, winning the following standings:

MIT's Dick Schwaegler '57 won the individual trophy, having finished first in both the downhill and slalom races. Eric Bodtker '57 took fourth position, and Tony Books '56 finished eighth.

Having lost in the final meet, the MIT men's skiers are now on the top of the New England Conference. But this is presently holding down second place in the league. This coming weekend the Tech men will try to keep up their record; teams have entered in both the Midwestern Canoe and in the Tufts Invitational Meet.

(Continued from page 1)

The Tech's skiers continued in their happy form to capture first place in the Keene Teachers' College Invitational Meet the last weekend, winning the following standings:

MIT's Dick Schwaegler '57 won the individual trophy, having finished first in both the downhill and slalom races. Eric Bodtker '57 took fourth position, and Tony Books '56 finished eighth.

Having lost in the final meet, the MIT men's skiers are now on the top of the New England Conference. But this is presently holding down second place in the league. This coming weekend the Tech men will try to keep up their record; teams have entered in both the Midwestern Canoe and in the Tufts Invitational Meet.

(Continued from page 1)

The Tech's skiers continued in their happy form to capture first place in the Keene Teachers' College Invitational Meet the last weekend, winning the following standings:

MIT's Dick Schwaegler '57 won the individual trophy, having finished first in both the downhill and slalom races. Eric Bodtker '57 took fourth position, and Tony Books '56 finished eighth.

Having lost in the final meet, the MIT men's skiers are now on the top of the New England Conference. But this is presently holding down second place in the league. This coming weekend the Tech men will try to keep up their record; teams have entered in both the Midwestern Canoe and in the Tufts Invitational Meet.

(Continued from page 1)

The Tech's skiers continued in their happy form to capture first place in the Keene Teachers' College Invitational Meet the last weekend, winning the following standings:

MIT's Dick Schwaegler '57 won the individual trophy, having finished first in both the downhill and slalom races. Eric Bodtker '57 took fourth position, and Tony Books '56 finished eighth.

Having lost in the final meet, the MIT men's skiers are now on the top of the New England Conference. But this is presently holding down second place in the league. This coming weekend the Tech men will try to keep up their record; teams have entered in both the Midwestern Canoe and in the Tufts Invitational Meet.

(Continued from page 1)

The Tech's skiers continued in their happy form to capture first place in the Keene Teachers' College Invitational Meet the last weekend, winning the following standings:

MIT's Dick Schwaegler '57 won the individual trophy, having finished first in both the downhill and slalom races. Eric Bodtker '57 took fourth position, and Tony Books '56 finished eighth.

Having lost in the final meet, the MIT men's skiers are now on the top of the New England Conference. But this is presently holding down second place in the league. This coming weekend the Tech men will try to keep up their record; teams have entered in both the Midwestern Canoe and in the Tufts Invitational Meet.

(Continued from page 1)

The Tech's skiers continued in their happy form to capture first place in the Keene Teachers' College Invitational Meet the last weekend, winning the following standings:

MIT's Dick Schwaegler '57 won the individual trophy, having finished first in both the downhill and slalom races. Eric Bodtker '57 took fourth position, and Tony Books '56 finished eighth.

Having lost in the final meet, the MIT men's skiers are now on the top of the New England Conference. But this is presently holding down second place in the league. This coming weekend the Tech men will try to keep up their record; teams have entered in both the Midwestern Canoe and in the Tufts Invitational Meet.