Judcom Expels Dorm Resident For Violation Of Previous Ruling

In a meeting on Tuesday, February 28, Judicial Committee voted unanimously to expel a first-year resident of Ward B. Mr. Aronson did not appeal the decision. A Judicial Committee decision cannot be appealed unless a second majority vote is obtained in the meeting. It may be appealed to the Faculty Council in accordance with the By-Laws of the General Student Body. In this case, Mr. Aronson did not appeal the decision.

The Interfraternity Council passed a motion at its meeting last Thursday evening, and the motion was passed by a two-thirds vote after considerable discussion.

The motion may be used to withdraw a pledge from the fraternity. If the pledge is not a member of the organization, the motion may be amended to remove the pledge from the fraternity. If the pledge is a member, the motion may be amended to remove the pledge from the fraternity.

The motion was passed by a two-thirds vote after considerable discussion.

The passed motion stated: "The purpose of pledge training and initiation ceremonies is to foster the spirit of fraternity, to give the pledge an opportunity to become familiar with the organization, and to instill in the pledge a sense of responsibility to the fraternity. The pledge training and initiation ceremonies shall be conducted in a manner that promotes the spirit of fraternity and in accordance with the principles of fraternity."

The motion passed, and the pledge training and initiation ceremonies shall be conducted in a manner that promotes the spirit of fraternity and in accordance with the principles of fraternity.

Pledge-Hazing Limited In IFC Crackdown:

Physical, Emotional Hazards Outlawed; Brenner Elected To Council Chairmanship

Captains Yves Croissant, the director of the film, and the explorer, will speak at Krenn Auditorium on Thursday, March 29, at 7:30 p.m. under the auspices of the Land League Committee.

At the same time, his new full-length feature, "The Silent World," will be shown openly for the first time in America. It was photographed in the Antarctic and on the continental shelf of the World. The film, which will be released in the U.S.

The National Geographic Society has been sponsoring the production of "The Silent World" since 1952. It is the first full-length color feature film to be released in the U.S.

The film will be shown at Krenn Auditorium on Tuesday, March 20, at 7:30 p.m.

The film, which was photographed in the Antarctic and on the continental shelf of the World, will be shown at Krenn Auditorium on Tuesday, March 20, at 7:30 p.m.

The film, which was photographed in the Antarctic and on the continental shelf of the World, will be shown at Krenn Auditorium on Tuesday, March 20, at 7:30 p.m.

The film, which was photographed in the Antarctic and on the continental shelf of the World, will be shown at Krenn Auditorium on Tuesday, March 20, at 7:30 p.m.