3 Heavyweight Crews Lose at Compton Cup In Year's Last Races

Tech's heavyweight crews suffered another disappointing afternoon last Saturday as they finished last or next to last in four Compton Cup regatta races at Princeton. With the exception of the freshman race, Tech's shells were never in close contention as the Princeton boats took three firsts and Harvard one.

Taking a slight lead in the entire distance, the Tigers outpulled Harvard in the last 20 strokes to win the varsity race by a length. Dartmouth finished third and 2 1/2 lengths behind, with Tech coming in still another length back. Princeton took the JV race by 2 lengths over Harvard with Tech coming in third in a half length ahead of Dartmouth. MIT shot to a lead in the freshman race to lead briefly, but soon both Princeton and Harvard went by to fight it out until the finish with the Crimson winning by 1/4 length. Tech's shell was fourteen seconds behind, beating Dartmouth by three seats. The second fresh race went to Princeton by fourteen seconds with MIT the only other contestant.
