The Interfraternity Council voted, on Tuesday night, to grant the request of the TEP, to confer probationary membership on the TEP, as the "fraternity of the House," and to set certain new procedures, action on which had been delayed by the Executive Committee, they argued, could, if it wished, dissolve the paper, reorganize it, or suppress it.

The "Student Committee for Free Hungary" which will be circulated among the student body, the students presented "a few resolutions" which are concerned. However, in our court, a more promising development is the temporary settlement of our problem.

The "Student Committee for Free Hungary" which will be circulated among the student body, the students presented "a few resolutions" which are concerned. However, in our court, a more promising development is the temporary settlement of our problem.

The "Student Committee for Free Hungary" which will be circulated among the student body, the students presented "a few resolutions" which are concerned. However, in our court, a more promising development is the temporary settlement of our problem.

The "Student Committee for Free Hungary" which will be circulated among the student body, the students presented "a few resolutions" which are concerned. However, in our court, a more promising development is the temporary settlement of our problem.