Hockey Team Bows 5-1 To Hamilton Six; Goodson Gets Goal

Playing their best game of the season, MIT's hockey team was beaten by a strong Hamilton sextet 5-1 at Hamilton last Saturday night. Tired by their long bus ride, the Engineer pucksters rebounded from a bad first period to dominate play for a good part of the second and third periods, only to bow to greater depth and a more experienced team.

Goals Dick McCahin played a fine game in the net and was aided on defense by the usual good play of Paul Ekberg and Bill Salnmon. The first period saw the Beavers jump to a 5-1 lead with a fine goal from Paul Ekberg and a strong Hamilton sextet.
