Inscomm Considers Discussion Groups, Beer In Football Games, Cum System

The cumulative marking system, drinking at athletic contests, and the forthcoming elections were some of the subjects discussed at the Inscomm meeting held on the 6th of February.

The minutes of the Liaison Committee meeting held the night before were first considered. This committee had discussed the formation of small, informal discussion groups made up of members of the faculty and students to discuss matters of common interest. Those groups could be of two kinds: those concerned with particular topics, and those which met to discuss different subjects. Informality was to be stressed, and Mal Jones '57, UAP, said that these groups would not need constitutions. The general opinion was that the initial formation of these groups would be difficult and if these groups are to be set up, TCA and TTA would probably be asked to help. The compulsory athletic program was again discussed. This committee meeting held the night before February, the compulsory athletic program was again discussed.

The last system had been away with this system, there were members of the faculty wanted to do registration could not do anything to help.
