To the Editorial Chairman:

The job of Vice President is steadily concerned with efficiency. That is, the Vice President must be responsible for maintaining communication among the student body. The Vice President should influence student opinion so that the Administration and intramural and intercollegiate sports may be respected and governed relations; and serve in a public capacity. It is in the interest of accomplishing these things the Vice President must be dynamic and possess initial and willing to work. I have been an active member of many campus organizations; among them the Junior from Committee, treasurer of the Association of Women Students and2 of the MIT Women's Drama. I am prepared to continue my service to the school.

I feel that the problems of MIT must be assured of fair representation and unbiased discussions on Institute Committee. This can be done by the following two points.

1. By making committee more efficient by reducing the size of the committee.
2. By having a more active role in the decision-making process.

The only final and long-range solution to the problem seem to be to cut down the number of members on the committee. The benefits of this approach are obvious. By reducing the size of the committee, we can assure that the problems of MIT are being efficiently handled.

To the Editorial Chairman:

The responsibility of student government does not always consist of making "input" at making decisions or "key" issues. Aside from the above, these issues must be done. It is not enough to deal with the problems of the community. If, during the year, we must also effectively attack the existing "problem areas." These又称 area include: Freshman Orientation, Student-Family Relations, Financial Policies, and the like. These big problems cannot be solved overnight; we must keep working at it.

The new catering service to present approach that will get favorable response all over campus is not an answer. Admitting compulsory commons is inevitable on the administration. Admitting living groups. Inscomm should then have to be made more attractive in the eyes of the student. This would be pursued and developed.
