Institute Committee has announced the results of last Tuesday's election with the exception of a contested election, for Secretary-Treasurer. In this election the Committee counted seven ballots. In the contest for Secretary-Treasurer, candidate I. S. Parkhill ran against. The sitting secretary, W. H. Swanson, has declared for service in the coming year. The new secretary will be elected at the next meeting of the committee.

In the election of the four-member executive committee, the members who were elected are: J. L. Satterfield, W. H. Swanson, G. H. Johnson, and J. A. Stratton.

The main reason behind these changes was the desire of the students to have a more active and efficient student government. It was agreed that the changes would be made in the interest of the students and the university as a whole.

The new council was elected by the students and will take over the duties of the old council. The new council will consist of the following members: J. L. Satterfield, W. H. Swanson, G. H. Johnson, and J. A. Stratton.

The new council will be responsible for the management of the university and will be in charge of all the activities of the university.

The new council is eager to take on the duties of the old council and is looking forward to a successful year.

+++The MIT lightweight crew enthusiastically carries their oars to the shelter, preparing for one of the last meetings of the season. The crew has been practicing hard in the last few weeks in anticipation of their upcoming races.

+++

The MIT lightweight crew has been practicing hard in the last few weeks in anticipation of their upcoming races. The crew has been focusing on improving their technique and speed in order to perform their best during the upcoming races.

+++

The MIT lightweight crew has been practicing hard in the last few weeks in anticipation of their upcoming races. The crew has been focusing on improving their technique and speed in order to perform their best during the upcoming races.

+++

The MIT lightweight crew has been practicing hard in the last few weeks in anticipation of their upcoming races. The crew has been focusing on improving their technique and speed in order to perform their best during the upcoming races.