The price may vary from place to place, but Philip Morris continues to be the most popular cigarette brand in the country. It is made in regular and low-nicotine forms, the sponsor of this column, and is ignored at either end.

Dear Mom and Dad (writes Zelda M. Nirdlinger, soph).

I wonder if you know a good thing when you taste one! I sure do, and try it yourself. I think you'll go crazy over this little cigarette.

HOW MUCH IS THAT DOGФISH IN THE WINDOW?

Dear Mom and Dad (writes Zelda M. Nirdlinger, soph).

You have been asking me to account for all the money I spend. There follows a list of some of the more important events and expenses. Don't forget, you asked for it.

MONDAY:

$2.00-- trip to the Secretary of the Army, offering to go instead of Elvis.

$0.08-- pack of Philip Morris, my favorite, and yours, if you know a good thing when you taste one!

$0.08-- for wondering and missing my first hour class dozen times in a row.

TUESDAY:

$0.90-- for not cleaning my plate at dinner. (I just couldn't eat the fish--"bad!"")

$0.08-- for dating undesirable boy. (Rod

$0.28-- pack of Philip Morris. What joy! What joy!

WEDNESDAY:

$0.28-- for smoking too long in the shower. (Gee whiz, a girl gets mighty dirty polishing a fingernail.)

$0.08-- pack of Philip Morris--one for Rodger.

$0.28-- pack of Philip Morris--one for Rodger.

FRIDAY:

$2.00-- a motorcycle for Rodger. (He is giving all his other girls for me, but they are no widows.

$0.08-- for being interested in William and Mary."

I bought a rooster named Ralph.

I bought a rooster named Ralph.

Well, mom and dad, you can see how expensive college.

Send money. Love and kisses, Zelda May.

Dear Mom and Dad,
