The REAL Story of Robin Hood

Once upon a time (which is the way most stories begin—and who's to argue with success?) there was an argument about some do-it-yourself venison...and a nice nobleman became a good Hood.

Trading charcoal gray for Lincoln Green wasn't easy—Robin had a good thing working for him before he started tramping the woods. But, with a philosophical sigh, he gathered a crew called the Merry Men, and began "exact tribute" from tyrannical King John. Actually, he was stealing the old boy blind...but King John was pretty much of a crumb, and most of the loot went to the poor, so nobody really cared. Besides—the Sheriff of Nottingham couldn’t catch Robin!

Well, one day, when things were kind of slow, in pranced Maid Marian—alongside of whom Cleopatra would have looked like a Poland China.

"What's for lunch, Robbie?" inquired Marian. "Cream of Nowhere, Doll," replied R. H. "Have a bowl?"

The rest of the story is history—the Merry Men always served Budweiser with their meals, and what girl could resist hospitality like that? Marian became Mrs. Hood...and Robin? He hung up his bow and arrows and is now the Budweiser salesman for Sherwood and points north. (Sometimes, he points south.)

MORAL: Venison or hamburgers...spark up your next meal with the merry taste of the King of Beers!
