Six Students Get Compton Prizes

Mr. Bressler's two-hitter paved the way for Peter Hohorst '57. Other athletes were presented to Herbert Miller '57 (best manager of the football team), Charles R. Gozzio '60 (the outstanding athlete of the year for track and field), and to nine others: five for academic excellence, the "Technology Dames", and two graduate students.

Outstanding athlete of the year went to Chadwick A. Tolman '60. Others recognized were: Benno Krauskopf (soccer), Harris Hyman (wrestling), Frank Convery (swimming and diving), and Glenn Crowley and East were named as "great athletes".

Tom Clark turned in a heartbreaker, 3-2, after carrying a 0-0 tie into the bottom of the seventh. Jerry Welch '59 faced 16 men and held them scoreless, striking out six in six innings. His complete game of his career. The chunky right-hander came within one out of a no-hitter.

The famine has ended. The Beaver varsity baseball squad ended its long run of futility with a 9-2 win over the U. S. Coast Guard Academy, in the second game of a double-header at New London, Conn.
