WTBS "Campus Forum" Premier Interviews MIT Assistant Treas.

The first WTBS Campus Forum program was broadcast to MIT residents last Thursday night. Mr. William Mackintosh, Assistant to the Treasurer, was interviewed on the subject of cutsbacks in dormitory services. The interview, held for Campus News Director Dave Waldhaim '59 in the studios of WTBS, was taped at 8:15 on the afternoon of the broadcast.

Mr. Mackintosh said that, in his personal opinion there may have been some misconceptions on the nature and results of the cuts. He further stated that most of the adverse reactions of the students were the result of the fact that, due to poor communication, the administrative staffs were unaware of the planned cuts until they were actually put into effect. He said that the cuts will remain, although unsold student staff could man desks and do cleaning if they wished. He also outlined the plan for setting up a housemaster and Resident-Tutor system in the dormitories, to be begun next year.

This program was the first of a series of programs, to be broadcast weekly at 8:00 p.m. Thursday. Next week's Forum is planning to feature a discussion between Dean Isadore and Arnold Amtz '59, D.A. President, on the subject of Open Hours hours.

The following program plans to have an interview with President James R. Killian, Jr. Future Forums will include talks with Bursar W. A. Rickerson, Prof. Neil R. Day, Dr. Paul L. Whipple of the Smithsonian Observatory, and other members of the administration, faculty, and local personalities.

WTBS plans to pass the subject of the week's interview to dormitory and Institute buildings, with a box at which interested students may drop suggestions for questions that they would like to have put to the person interviewed. This program, according to Dave Waldhaim, is part of a new WTBS policy to increase its coverage of campus news and activities. Other activities shan- ed along these lines include campus news reports and public notices.
