End of Regular Ice Season
Moving into the last to last round
of games before the playoffs, three contests in the Intramural Hockey
League were held Tuesday night.

Undisputed Beta Theta Pi downed
LaBeta Chi 11-0, with Rob
Cook '60 being the outstanding
performer of the night.

Phi Kappa Sigma downed once
Phi Delta Theta, 17-10 at the half.
Mike Albert '60 and Pete
McKenna '60 were the stars for
the victors as they trailed 4-0 at the half.

A.T.O. scored 17 points, fought back valiantly only to be switched back for last by the Phi Gams. A free throw spelled
the difference, however, as A.T.O.
tied the game at 44-44 that reasserting
the overtime period. Here, however,
A.T.O. lost its spark, as the Phi jumped in 5 points, while holding the lows scoreless. High man for the victors was Chuck Ingram '58 with 13 points.

Robert Haklisch, Manager
MILWAUKEE 2, WIS. FLINT 2, MICH.

Talbot Avenue, Medford. The
summary games will be held on Wednesday, and Thursday nights.

The Phi Gamnma Delta, Student House, Alpha Tau Omega.
Phi Kappa Sigma, Tau Epsilon Pi
and A.T.O. The winners of these games will be decided in a playoff series on Thursday night.

Robert Haklisch, Manager

End of Regular Ice Season
Moving into the last to last round
of games before the playoffs, three
contests in the Intramural Hockey
League were held Tuesday night.

Undisputed Beta Theta Pi downed
LaBeta Chi 11-0, with Rob
Cook '60 being the outstanding
performer of the night.

Phi Kappa Sigma downed once
Phi Delta Theta, 17-10 at the half.
Mike Albert '60 and Pete
McKenna '60 were the stars for
the victors as they trailed
4-0 at the half.

A.T.O. scored 17 points, fought back valiantly only
to be switched back for last by the Phi Gams. A free throw spelled
the difference, however, as A.T.O.
tied the game at 44-44 that reasserting
the overtime period. Here, however,
A.T.O. lost its spark, as the Phi
jumped in 5 points, while holding the
lows scoreless. High man for the victors was Chuck Ingram '58 with 13 points.

Robert Haklisch, Manager
MILWAUKEE 2, WIS. FLINT 2, MICH.

Talbot Avenue, Medford. The
summary games will be held on Wednesday, and Thursday nights.

The Phi Gamnma Delta, Student House, Alpha Tau Omega.
Phi Kappa Sigma, Tau Epsilon Pi
and A.T.O. The winners of these games will be decided in a playoff
series on Thursday night.

Robert Haklisch, Manager

End of Regular Ice Season
Moving into the last to last round
of games before the playoffs, three
contests in the Intramural Hockey
League were held Tuesday night.

Undisputed Beta Theta Pi downed
LaBeta Chi 11-0, with Rob
Cook '60 being the outstanding
performer of the night.

Phi Kappa Sigma downed once
Phi Delta Theta, 17-10 at the half.
Mike Albert '60 and Pete
McKenna '60 were the stars for
the victors as they trailed
4-0 at the half.

A.T.O. scored 17 points, fought back valiantly only
to be switched back for last by the Phi Gams. A free throw spelled
the difference, however, as A.T.O.
tied the game at 44-44 that reasserting
the overtime period. Here, however,
A.T.O. lost its spark, as the Phi
jumped in 5 points, while holding the
lows scoreless. High man for the victors was Chuck Ingram '58 with 13 points.

Robert Haklisch, Manager

End of Regular Ice Season
Moving into the last to last round
of games before the playoffs, three
contests in the Intramural Hockey
League were held Tuesday night.

Undisputed Beta Theta Pi downed
LaBeta Chi 11-0, with Rob
Cook '60 being the outstanding
performer of the night.

Phi Kappa Sigma downed once
Phi Delta Theta, 17-10 at the half.
Mike Albert '60 and Pete
McKenna '60 were the stars for
the victors as they trailed
4-0 at the half.

A.T.O. scored 17 points, fought back valiantly only
to be switched back for last by the Phi Gams. A free throw spelled
the difference, however, as A.T.O.
tied the game at 44-44 that reasserting
the overtime period. Here, however,
A.T.O. lost its spark, as the Phi
jumped in 5 points, while holding the
lows scoreless. High man for the victors was Chuck Ingram '58 with 13 points.

Robert Haklisch, Manager

End of Regular Ice Season
Moving into the last to last round
of games before the playoffs, three
contests in the Intramural Hockey
League were held Tuesday night.

Undisputed Beta Theta Pi downed
LaBeta Chi 11-0, with Rob
Cook '60 being the outstanding
performer of the night.

Phi Kappa Sigma downed once
Phi Delta Theta, 17-10 at the half.
Mike Albert '60 and Pete
McKenna '60 were the stars for
the victors as they trailed
4-0 at the half.

A.T.O. scored 17 points, fought back valiantly only
to be switched back for last by the Phi Gams. A free throw spelled
the difference, however, as A.T.O.
tied the game at 44-44 that reasserting
the overtime period. Here, however,
A.T.O. lost its spark, as the Phi
jumped in 5 points, while holding the
lows scoreless. High man for the victors was Chuck Ingram '58 with 13 points.

Robert Haklisch, Manager

End of Regular Ice Season
Moving into the last to last round
of games before the playoffs, three
contests in the Intramural Hockey
League were held Tuesday night.

Undisputed Beta Theta Pi downed
LaBeta Chi 11-0, with Rob
Cook '60 being the outstanding
performer of the night.

Phi Kappa Sigma downed once
Phi Delta Theta, 17-10 at the half.
Mike Albert '60 and Pete
McKenna '60 were the stars for
the victors as they trailed
4-0 at the half.

A.T.O. scored 17 points, fought back valiantly only
to be switched back for last by the Phi Gams. A free throw spelled
the difference, however, as A.T.O.
tied the game at 44-44 that reasserting
the overtime period. Here, however,
A.T.O. lost its spark, as the Phi
jumped in 5 points, while holding the
lows scoreless. High man for the victors was Chuck Ingram '58 with 13 points.

Robert Haklisch, Manager

End of Regular Ice Season
Moving into the last to last round
of games before the playoffs, three
contests in the Intramural Hockey
League were held Tuesday night.

Undisputed Beta Theta Pi downed
LaBeta Chi 11-0, with Rob
Cook '60 being the outstanding
performer of the night.

Phi Kappa Sigma downed once
Phi Delta Theta, 17-10 at the half.
Mike Albert '60 and Pete
McKenna '60 were the stars for
the victors as they trailed
4-0 at the half.

A.T.O. scored 17 points, fought back valiantly only
to be switched back for last by the Phi Gams. A free throw spelled
the difference, however, as A.T.O.
tied the game at 44-44 that reasserting
the overtime period. Here, however,
A.T.O. lost its spark, as the Phi
jumped in 5 points, while holding the
lows scoreless. High man for the victors was Chuck Ingram '58 with 13 points.

Robert Haklisch, Manager

End of Regular Ice Season
Moving into the last to last round
of games before the playoffs, three
contests in the Intramural Hockey
League were held Tuesday night.

Undisputed Beta Theta Pi downed
LaBeta Chi 11-0, with Rob
Cook '60 being the outstanding
performer of the night.

Phi Kappa Sigma downed once
Phi Delta Theta, 17-10 at the half.
Mike Albert '60 and Pete
McKenna '60 were the stars for
the victors as they trailed
4-0 at the half.

A.T.O. scored 17 points, fought back valiantly only
to be switched back for last by the Phi Gams. A free throw spelled
the difference, however, as A.T.O.
tied the game at 44-44 that reasserting
the overtime period. Here, however,
A.T.O. lost its spark, as the Phi
jumped in 5 points, while holding the
lows scoreless. High man for the victors was Chuck Ingram '58 with 13 points.