Matmen Take 4th In N. Englands; Weaver And Simmons Star

The MIT Varsity took fourth place in the New England Intercollegiate Wrestling Association Championship at the Coast Guard last Friday and Saturday. At the same time the Tech Fresh took 5th amongst the eleven teams in the league.

Finishing off three months of hard but relatively fruitful wrestling, the MIT matmen went down to New London.

Basket-Brawl Game Planned For Faculty Early This Spring

Last April over one thousand spectators crowded into the Armory to witness a rib-splinting faculty basketball game between a Science and Humanities team and an Engineering and Administration squad. The game was so well received that the Public Relations Committee announced yesterday it would sponsor the spectacle again this year.

Last year's game, won by the Science and Humanities five, featured Tech notables as "Easy Uino" John "The Stilt" Mulrphy. The official, Rog "Prouncer" Prouty, and "Wrecker" Kispert, Joseph "Bonus Ingard, Dean "White Bucks" Speer, Ingard, Dean "White Bucks" Speer, and Dean Thresher. The PRC plans to have the participants in this year's game nominated by the students themselves.

The tentative date for the event is Saturday night, April 11. Now is a good time to start thinking about who you would like to see battered, bounced, tossed and toppled in the finest showings for the Cardinal and Gray.

Weaver, Buller Second For the varsity, Dan Weaver '59 finished second in the 145-pound weight class and Jim Simmons '59 took third in the 150.

For the Fresh Andy Buller placed second in the 132, Dave Lathian third in the 138, and Reed Freeman fourth in the 147.

Beyond these outstanding wrestlers, John Sullivan of the varsity and Bob Linderman and Bill Martin of the freshmen each won one match.
