

Stickmen Triumphant Twice

Brown Crushed, 6-2 Humble UMass 11-6

A well balanced varsity lacrosse team picked up two goals in each of the first, third, and fourth periods to defeat Brown 6-2 on Briggs Field Monday. The stickmen showed exceptional depth in mid-field as they recorded their third win of the season. Fritz Frink '59 turned in a fine performance in the nets to highlight the victory.

Dick File '58 got Tech rolling at 2:38 of the first period with a goal from in close. Attackman Chuck Conn '60 put them ahead 2-0 with his first of two goals at the 5:38 mark. The score remained 2-0 for the remainder of the first period, with Brown scoring the only goal of the second period to make it 2-1 at the half.

Conn Scores

Conn started things in the second half with a goal at the 4:09 mark of the third period, but five minutes later Brown scored while a man up to close the margin to 3-2. This was the last time they were close, however, as Chuck Fitzgerald '59, playing an excellent game at midfield, added a goal on a long shot from in front. Ron deReynier '60 picked up both goals in the fourth period to ice the game, scoring once on a good pass from John Comerford '59, and the other time unassisted. Fitzgerald was robbed of a goal by an offside penalty after running the length of the field while Tech was two men down.

Outstanding on attack for MIT were deReynier, File, and Comerford, while the three midfield combinations: Fitzgerald, Hubie Warner '58, and Comerford; Gizzie Peckingham '59, Bob Williamson '59, and Clyde Wilson '59; and Larry Boyd '58, Dan Michaels '60, and Nat Florian '60, all performed beautifully. With only one senior among them the outlook is not only promising for the rest of the season, but also for next year.

The Tech stickmen downed the University of Massachusetts here Wednesday, 11-6, for their fourth victory in five games.

UMass opened the contest by breaking into the scoring column with two quick goals. Momentarily stunned, the Cardinal and Gray called a time out, reformed, and came storming back. In a short time the Beavers scored four times to reverse the situation and finish out the period.

In the second quarter, the Engineers increased their lead to 6-3. The last half opened with a trading of goals; the only scoring in the hard fought third period.

When the fourth stanza started, the Cardinal and Gray went on a rampage, scoring four goals against one fluke tally for UMass, as co-captain Rich Johnson '58, surprised everyone by deflecting a visitors' pass past the Beaver goalie, Fritz Frink '60. In the closing minutes, coach Ben Martin's reserves were scored upon once to bring the final tally to 11-6.

Outstanding on defense were Frank Frink, sophomore goalie, who made some phenomenal stops; John Cadwallader '60, and Joe Timms '58, all of whom turned in fine performances.

Charlie Fitzgerald '59 led the offense with three goals, while Jim Russell '59 tipped in two. The rest of the eleven scores were made by co-captain Hubie Warner '58, Nat Florian '60, John Comerford '59, Jon Weisbuch '59, Larry Boyd '59, and Dick File '58.

The next game, in what should be an outstanding season, is here with Worcester Polytechnic Institute on Saturday at 2:00.

Lightweight Crews Open Season With Harvard Tomorrow

Hoping for the beautiful spring weather that has favored Boston during the early part of this week, MIT's lightweight crews meet their Harvard counterparts tomorrow afternoon on the Charles in their 1958 debut.

Bob Kent's Beaver Frosh oarsmen will open the afternoon's program with the second boat racing the Cantabs at 4:00 p.m. Thirty minutes later, the first-string yearlings will see action.

The Junior Varsities will clash at 5:30, with the varsities scheduled for six o'clock. Both of these Beaver eights are coached by Val Skov '55.

Preceding the racing will be the christening of a new shell, "Julius A. Stratton," to be used by the heavies. The ceremonies will be held at the Boat House at noon, and will be conducted by MIT's Acting President, Dr. Julius A. Stratton, and Mrs. Stratton.

MIT Nine Drops Season's Opener Take Road Tomorrow Against WPI

Enhanced by beautiful spring weather, an inspired MIT baseball team took the field against Boston College in the season's opener last Tuesday. Although the game was close for six innings, the men from Commonwealth Avenue triumphed 19-7.

Boston College drew first blood as they scored a run in the second inning on two singles and a double off starter and eventual loser Al Beard '59. But in the last half of the second, the Engineers, not to be outdone, came up with two runs off the Terriers' George Giersch, who went all the way and got the win.

Following a scoreless third inning, MIT tallied twice in the bottom of the fourth to take a 4-1 lead. Then the roof fell in. In the top of the fifth, the victors capitalized on Beaver errors and walks to push over five runs and chase starter Beard from the box. He was replaced by Karl Walterskirchen '58 who finally put out the fire.

Not to be headed, the visitors added another three runs in the seventh and led 9-4 at the end of the inning. In the top of the eighth BC scored twice more, but the bottom of the frame saw the Cardinal and Gray stage a mild rally in an attempt to get back into the game.

Beavers Score Three

Pinch hitter Gene Shaw '60 led off the inning with a walk. A base on balls to Paul Larson '58 followed, putting runners on first and second. Eric Hasseltine '60 then followed with a hit to left scoring Shaw and sending Larson around to third. Following a strike out by Warren Goodnow '59,

Bob Hecht '58 slammed a sharp single to left field which was bobbled and thrown away by the left fielder enabling Larson and Hasseltine to score and putting Hecht on third. The next man fanned and Ed Sullivan '58 grounded out, second to first, to end the inning and MIT's scoring for the day.

Realizing that Tech was still within reach, the Terriers attempted, rather successfully, to ice the game. The lead off hitter walked; the next two batters doubled, and Jerry Welch '59, who replaced Walterskirchen in the seventh, was sent to the showers. His reliever, Dick Lyons '59 had little effect as Boston College battered him for four of the innings eight tallies. He in turn was relieved by Goodnow who, after allowing another three runs, retired the side.

McLaughlin Top Hitter

Dick McLaughlin of BC took top honors in the hitting department by collecting four hits in four attempts and driving in four runs. Goodnow, with two for four was the most productive hitter for the losers. The only triple of the day belongs to Beaver captain Bob Witte '58, while three of Tech's seven runs were driven in by Ed Sullivan.

MIT's fielding was better than their opponent's as they committed only five errors as compared to the Terrier's eight miscues. Noticeable for his fine glove work was center fielder Eric Hasseltine who was kept fairly busy by the winner's booming bats.

Having engaged Harvard on Thursday, the Engineer nine will travel to WPI tomorrow for an afternoon game.
