Overseas Careers Subject of Confab

Harvard University's International Development Society is holding its first International Careers Conference on Saturday, April 15 from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at the Institute for Geographical Exploration, which is located at 2 Divinity Avenue.

The conference has assembled a distinguished panel to explain the opportunities available to those interested in pursuing careers overseas working for the U.S. government, private industry, or a non-profit foundation with activities abroad.

Members of the panel include Charles Henry Lee, managing director of International Professional Internships at the consulting firm of McKinsey and Company. Mr. Lee has headed such operations as Du Pont and General Motors in setting up their overseas operations.

Professor John Pavierwath of the Harvard Business School will add Mr. Lee in explaining the opportunities in business and industry abroad. He has made an extensive study of the hiring policies of industry for overseas employees and is familiar with the training regiments for postgraduate students.

An expert on governmental jobs overseas, Dayton Hall, Chief of the Administration Division of the Office of Foreign Service, U.S. Department of State, will speak.

George R. Donovan, director of the new Central Personnel Service at the World Affairs Center for the United States, is the expert on opportunities in non-profit organizations and foundations. The Central Personnel Service was recently set up by the Ford Foundation and the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, as a central clearing house for all organizations desiring overseas personnel. Tickets, available at the door, are $1.50.

WHAT IS THE MAN WHO KEEPS THE CIGARETTE MACHINES FILLED WITH LUCKIES?

(The Paragraph at Right)

THE REALLY GREAT MEN of history are forgotten men. Who did throw the overview in Mrs. Murphy's chamber? Is Kilroy still here? Does the greatest of them all—the man who keeps the cigarette machine filled with Luckies? Let's honor the guy who supplies the one cigarette that's packed end to end with fine, light, good-tasting tobacco, toasted to taste even better. Let's salute (Fanfare!) the Vendor Tender! Touching, isn't it?

(The Paragraph at Right)

THE REALLY GREAT MEN of history are forgotten men. Who did throw the overview in Mrs. Murphy's chamber? Is Kilroy still here? Does anyone remember Dear John's last name? No, friends, they're all (SoHy) forgotten. So right now, let's pay homage to the greatest of them all—the man who keeps the cigarette machine filled with Luckies? Let's honor the guy who supplies the one cigarette that's packed end to end with fine, light, good-tasting tobacco, toasted to taste even better. Let's salute (Fanfare!) the Vendor Tender!
