Frosh Trackmen Gain First Win

The frosh track team gained their first victory of the spring season Wednesday afternoon as the Beavers downed Governor Deane 36½-47½ at Briggs Field. The yearlings led all the way, winning eight of the thirteen events, including a clean sweep of all three sprints. Don Morrison and Gary Gustafson, with 14 and 13 tallies respectively, were high pointmen for Tech.

Joe Davis, with 12 markers, was the third Techman in double figures. Davis had a victory in the low hurdles event, a tie for first in the high jump and second in the long jump.

White Shines

Brian White was outstanding in the distance events, leading off with a hard-fought-for second in the mile, and following with a brilliant effort in the 880, coming from behind in the last 200 yards to take the event in 2:08.7. Davis, McConnell, Morrison, and Ray Edmunds starred in the field.

Sprinters Sweep

Gustafson led the sprints' performance with a double win, taking the 440-yard dash in 52.5 and the 220-yard dash in 23.8, and a second spot in the 100. Morrison, in addition to taking first in the pole vault and second in the broad jump, shadowed the 200 and placed third in the 220. Dick Otto, Dan McConnell, and George Withrow completed the sprints' assault of the opposition.
