GOLF TEAM DEFEATS TUTS AND BROWN IN EARLY SEASON PLAY

As a result of the first three rounds of the season the MIT golf team has found itself in the lead. Captain Bob Rosenfeld '59, Colin Clive '60, Jack Fischer found themselves victors over Tufts and Brown while losing to Williams, Harvard and Wesleyan.

Last Thursday the Tufts golfers opened the season with a 2 to 2 victory over Tufts. Captain Bob Rosenfeld '59, Colin Clive '60, Jack Fischer found themselves victors over Tufts and Brown while losing to Williams, Harvard and Wesleyan.

Despite the fact that the weather was delayed for a day due to inclement weather, the inter-fraternity golf season got underway on Sunday, April 13, with the playing of thirteen matches to date. Some of the teams which have shown up strong thus far include, United Christian Fellowship, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Phi Gamma Delta, and the defending champions, Graduate House A.

Scores of games played to date as announced by softball manager, Bob Thomas '58 are:
