The intramural golf tournament will be held on Saturday, May 10, at the Sandy Burr Golf Club, Wayland, Mass.

More than sixty golfers are expected to turn out as the tournament is one of the most popular of the intramural minor sports. Last year play was hindered by inclement weather; but it is expected that sunny skies will bring added incentive to hopeful Tech golfers.

Each team will be composed of three men and the low total will determine the victor. A fee of $3.00 will be paid by each player at the course. All team rosters must be turned in at the Athletic Association office in Walker Memorial before five o’clock on this Friday.

The champion of the intramural bowling league will be crowned this week after the playing of several remaining final round matches.

The season began with thirty-six hopefuls, which were divided into six leagues. The winner of each league was placed in a final playoff to determine the top team. The playoffs began a week ago last Thursday and are scheduled to end this Thursday.

The teams participating in the finals are: 5:15 Club A, 5:15 Club B, Sigma Alpha Epsilon B, Phi Gamma Delta, Lambda Chi Alpha, and Sigma Kappa. 5:15 Club, showing its traditional power in intramural bowling, is expected to sweep the competition as both of its teams are currently leading the play.

The varsity sailors topped six other schools at New London, Sunday, winning their elimination for the New England dinghy championship finals.

The team will meet the two other elimination winners at Marblehead on May 10 and 11.

The regatta was held at the Coast Guard Academy on the Thames River. Leading the Tech effort was team captain Dennis Posey ’59 with Miss Carol Dorworth ’60 sailing in A division. In seven races Posey took two firsts and two seconds, easily winning high point skipper honors for the regatta. Sailing for Tech in B division was Bill Widnall ’59 with crew Bob Hopkins ’60. Widnall gained four firsts, one second, and two thirds.

The final results: MIT 105, Yale 84, Trinity 84, U. of Rhode Island 66, Holy Cross 59, Tufts 57, Northeastern 58.

In other action during the weekend, two other Tech skippers placed second.
