To the attention of those doing research on cigarette smoke analysis, we wish to call your attention to the same type of research to be performed on the smoke produced by cigarettes made entirely of natural leaf tobacco, made without additives of any kind, so that the end result of this research should be correlated with the work currently being done with commercial cigarettes.

Grad House Takes Intramurals Trophy; Season Opens Oct. 1st

The MIT Athletic Department has published the final standings of clubs in last year's intramurals competition, as well as the schedule for this fall's intramural activity.

The Graduate House wins the All Sports Trophy this year, ending in first place with a grand total of 605 and 9/14 points. In second and third places, respectively, are Sigma Phi Epsilon and Sigma Chi fraternities. The commuters are in fourth place, and the highest ranking undergraduate dormitory is Baker House, which is in eighth place.

The schedule of activity this fall does intramural tennis starting the season with an opening on October first, with matches running through the thirty-first. The bowling season begins on the first also, but continues through January thirtieth.

Intramural football is scheduled for October fourth, with wrestling on October eighth, and intramural swimming contests will be held on November fourteenth, fifteenth, and sixteenth.

The intramural tennis program will shift into the fall season this year to alleviate the crowding on the tennis courts that has usually occurred in the spring. A memorandum from George Silver '46, Intramural Vice President, that this change will not be permanent.

Lucky Strike presents

THINKLISH

—the funniest, easiest way yet to make money!

PUT IN A GOOD WORD AND MAKE $25!

Speak English all your life and what does it get you? Nothing! But start speaking Thinklish and you may make $25! Just put two words together to form a new (and much funnier) one. Example: precision flight of bumblebees: Swarmation. (Note: the two original words form the new one: swarm+formation.) We'll pay $25 each for the hundreds and hundreds of new Thinklish words judged best—and we'll feature many of them in our college ads. Send your Thinklish words (with English translations) to Lucky Strike, Box 67A, Mt. Vernon, N. Y. Enclose name, address, college or university, and class. And while you're at it, light up a Lucky. Get the full, rich taste of fine tobacco—the honest taste of a Lucky Strike.

Humanities Dept.
Announces Prize: In Writing Contests

The Humanities Department announces the results of the fall competitions which it held last fall. All the top prizes were taken by members of the Class of 1961.

In the Robert A. Reit contest, in creative writing, first place is shared by Sidney Magen's '61 "Synopsis A Snap," and John Frankenhauser's '61 "The Red Story Laurence Displished." Magen is an architecture major from Georgia; Frankenhauser, a senior from Rio de Janeiro, Brazil.

Robert E. Olson '61, of Kelly A. Force Base, Texas, wins the Allan K. essays prize for a work on "Fate."

The top prize in the fiction contest for his class also. His winning work is entitled "Braided." Third-place honors in the fiction contest were taken by upper-classmen Robert O. Rogers '61 and William G. West '63. In contrast to the upper-class winners, both won the Essays XXI, Humanities.
