hugs of love, oh no! We're run- ning our own investigation, and when we find out who did it, it's going to be too bad for them!"

Action was begun immediately after the incident to protect the students involved from Cambridge Police, the Security Forces, and the Drainahouse. But, and Judicial Committee issued a joint investigation, which ended acci- dentally when the persons involved were identified. Dornsey's House chairman Chris Strout was expected that the man will be held by the Campus police next week. He further said that the Cambridge Police have not yet made any com- ments, and that an official report of the incident has been released to outside parties. When asked whether he knew the in- cident was now in a position to prov-"
