Sailors Place
Hampered by rain, wind, and an overwhelming sea of students, MIT's varsity sailing team lost a heartbreaking one-point decision to the Coast Guard Academy in the Hoyt Trophy Regatta Sunday afternoon at Brown University on the Seekonk River.

Bad luck struck Bill Wisnial, 59, twic e this season when his boat capsized at the three-quarter mark in two different races that he was leading. According to the dictates of sailing rules, Wisnial was given the same number of points for these two races as his average score in the races that he finished. This cost MIT four crucial points and, consequently, the Hoyt Trophy title.

Basketball Hopefuls Meet With Coaches
Candidates for the MIT varsity basketball team were interviewed by coach Robert "Scotty" Whitelaw in the Hoyt Trophy Regatta Sunday afternoon at Brown University on the Seekonk River.

Forfeited its four gamnes in the first quarter when Bob Polutcho finished. This cost MIT four crucial points in the first quarter, and the Hoyt Trophy title to Brown. According to the dictates of sailing rules, Widnial was given the same number of points for these two races as his average score in the races that he finished. This cost MIT four crucial points and, consequently, the Hoyt Trophy title.

The only fly in the ointment here is the possibility of an All-Stars' tournament this time and the finals are not to be extended. So far no games are slated for the Sunday afternoon of JP week-end.

Several obvious possibilities would be considered, but planning in future years for such a tournament would be OK, but impossible this year.

Practice sessions are being held each weekday from 5 to 7 p.m. in the large turnout but emphasized that the teams need managers and those interested are urged to attend a work-out.

KING OF BEERS

English: TOBACCONIST'S SHOP IN THE FROZEN NORTH

Thinklish translation: Shops above the Arctic Circle sell little more than ice skates, ice cream, and the world's coldest icewater. So the (Joe) field's wide open for a cigarette store—or cigo. Up there, selling the honest goods of a Lucky Strike, you'll be snowed under with orders! Other brands get a very cold reception.

SPEAK THINKLISH! MAKE $25

Just put two words together to form a new one. Thinklish is so easy you'll think of dozens of words in seconds! We'll pay $25 each for the hundreds of Thinklish words judged best—and we'll feature many in our college ads. Send your Thinklish words with name, address, and college or university and close.
