Safeguard Starts Campaign to Rid the Institute of Garbage

"The Magde History of Dr. Faus-

ald, by Leslie K. Blythe, will be presented by the MIT Com- Committee on two consecutive nights in the Little Thea-

24. The curtain will rise at 8:30 p.m. in the Little Theatre.

New production, directed by John Blythe, will be the East Coast preor the San Francisco Inter-

43. In 1925, based on the Paus-

1. (Continued from page 8)

2. Fragment of the East Group class, will convene the fair maids during the intermission.

3. For Friday night entertainment, besides the featured stylings of the Harry James Orchestra, the patter of President of the Junior class, will crown the fair maidens during the intermission.

4. At dinner on Friday night, President of the Junior class, will crown the fair maidens during the intermission.

5. The Turkish translation was the work of Milan Dabbi, a graduate student in English from Istanbul, Turkey. The Safety Co-

6. He felt that this mysterious Turk-

7. On Tuesday evening, the conference was attacked by two students.

8. This caption, which appeared on several places in the Institute last year, was revealed yesterday as an appeal for action by the Alpha Phi Omega. It was decided by the Safety Committee, headed by Mr. Larry Romano. The Monday night bulletin for Wednesday evening, was distributed to Marla Ioed. Not listed in any official Institute directory. People who had unlisted telephone numbers were also accompa

9. In addition to the phone book, "black book" in hand, of these numbers were not even on the campus..." Going Places," to

10. League.

Regional Conference Of Alpha Phi Omega Meeting on Campus

The Alpha Phi Omega Chapter of Alpha Phi Omega will be held in the 1958 New England Regional Leader's Conference of Alpha Phi Omega this week-end. Featured on the program will be a banquet on Saturday evening, at which President of the National Organization, will be the ●

11. 1958 Los Angeles regional conference, the Alpha Phi Omega National Student Council will hold a meeting and then go to dinner at the home of a member of the Los Angeles chapter. After dinner, they will then go to a party with all the students of the town, several of whom are Harvard students. The expenses for the entire day will be fully borne by the people of Concord.