IM Football Battles Feature Meetings of Unbeaten Contestants

Following the postponement of the majority of last week's Intramural football contests, the teams once again swung into action with a full schedule in both the A and B divisions. Heading Saturday's activity will be the game between Beta Theta Pi and Pi Lambda Chi. With these teams having yet to taste defeat in other. Div. A action, SAE will seek its unattenuated record against a vastly improved Sigma Alpha Mu squad, while the Phi Gamma Delta will face Pi Kappa Alpha in Div. B. Unbeaten, unscathed upon Phi Kappa Alpha has taken on Pi Kappa Beta, another undefeated aggregation. Meanwhile, Lambda Chi Alpha will attempt to dip the wings of the high flying Sky Guardians.

J. M. manager, Dick Nordrop '60, today announced that last week's postponed games will be made up against Armitage Day, November 11.

Harriers Toppled By Coast Guard, Night's Rain, in Storm

Although preparing their best performance of the season, the MIT rowing team was edged out by Coast Guard Academy and Northeastern last Saturday at Franklin Park. The visitors were USCGA 38, NU 40, MIT 42. The final aggregation motored to Northeastern while showing the Coast Guard rowings. Their score: NU 26, MIT 41, USCGA 38.

Brian White '61 was the individual winner, leading the field with a 21.16 effort. The win was White's first in varsity competition and the first title on MIT's resume that has taken first place this year.

Runner up for the Beaver harriers was Don Colvin '60 in fifth place in 21.82. Bob Mullen '60 finished sixth with a 21.21-Ed McCartney '60 13th in 22.12 to account for the Beaver's tally.

Stone Baillie led the freshmen in their effort with a checkered flag finish in 18.46. Middle Bell was close behind in fifth place in 18.20.

Larry Coppola and Steve Root took ninth and tenth in 22.01. Bob was 14th in 23.12.

The visitors opened the scoring in 1:00 when an attempted shot sailed over the Beaver's goal with neither team dominating play. Tonight, Tomorrow

The second 13-5 wrestling tournament will be held this year tonight and tomorrow afternoon. The tournament committee is out to make the competition as even a bigger success than it was last year. A trophy will be awarded to the winning team, and the results of this meet will be counted toward the All-Sports Trophy.

This year there will be seven weight classes: 125, 135, 145, 157, 167, 177, 187. A team will consist of one man in each weight class.

First round matches will be run from 7:45 P.M. tonight in the cages. Semi-finals, consolations, and finals will be held from 8:30 p.m. tomorrow. Five winner Patterson, 91, intra- men wrestling manager, is in charge of the program.

WANTED: BASKETBALL

You can help intramural basketball by urging anyone in your group that might be interested in refereeing to call Ray Landis at 72-8901 or leave your name at the Athletic Association offices. This year, the officials will be held at 1:30 p.m.
