44 Chosen for Chem Honorary

The Beta Alpha Chapter of Phi Lambda Upsilon, honorary fraternity for accounting students, has selected twenty-four under- and twenty-four graduate candidates as new members for the upcoming year, according to Professor Arden. A totem pole race immediately following, and the in-

Improvement of 704 Computer Renders Greater Speed, Memory

The hardest working and most "complex" student at MIT—the 704 computer, has achieved a speed increase greater than that of Sir Win-

Vilar, Noted French Artist, Visits M.I.T.

Jean-Vilain, director and acor for the Théâtre National Populaire of Paris, will have an informal discus-

Organ Recital To Be

On Sunday in Chapel

Dr. David C. Johnson, minister of music at the First Church, Congregational, in Boston, will give an organ recital in the MIT Chapel, Sun-

William Congdon To Show Artwork Here

Paintings by William Congdon will be exhibited in the New Gallery of the Kresge Auditorium starting November 10th to 30th.

Junior Prom Begins Tonight

Irregardless of what the future brings, about Field Day, the Junior Prom itself will go on as planned. The formal affair tonight from 9 to 1 will mark the first appearance of Harry James and his Music Makers. While this and the Junior Prom was due to the sudden resumption of more important-things-to-do, the present situation did not affect any way, with the carrying of partially-finished vessels to the banks of the Charles, and, naturally, subjecting it to the moistening influ-

Coming Culture

Vilar, Noted French Artist, Visits M.I.T.

Jean-Vilain, director and acor for the Théâtre National Populaire of Paris, will have an informal discus-

Organ Recital To Be

On Sunday in Chapel

Dr. David C. Johnson, minister of music at the First Church, Congregational, in Boston, will give an organ recital in the MIT Chapel, Sun-

William Congdon To Show Artwork Here

Paintings by William Congdon will be exhibited in the New Gallery of the Kresge Auditorium starting November 10th to 30th.

Junior Prom Begins Tonight

Irregardless of what the future brings, about Field Day, the Junior Prom itself will go on as planned. The formal affair tonight from 9 to 1 will mark the first appearance of Harry James and his Music Makers. While this and the Junior Prom was due to the sudden resumption of more important-things-to-do, the present situation did not affect any way, with the carrying of partially-finished vessels to the banks of the Charles, and, naturally, subjecting it to the moistening influ-

Coming Culture

Vilar, Noted French Artist, Visits M.I.T.

Jean-Vilain, director and acor for the Théâtre National Populaire of Paris, will have an informal discus-

Organ Recital To Be

On Sunday in Chapel

Dr. David C. Johnson, minister of music at the First Church, Congregational, in Boston, will give an organ recital in the MIT Chapel, Sun-

William Congdon To Show Artwork Here

Paintings by William Congdon will be exhibited in the New Gallery of the Kresge Auditorium starting November 10th to 30th.