Shirt Satellite Launched!

The first Shirt Satellite is finally underway. Just yesterday, during their lunch hour, Van Heusen scientists launched a Van Heusen Century Shirt into the stratosphere. It's now circling the earth at 150,000 miles an hour, in an orbit so large that a grown man couldn't walk it, even in a single day! Traveling at the legal 15 miles per hour, it is expected that the Van Heusen Century Shirt Satellite will remain up there in the blue beyond for at least 1200 years. And, with luck, maybe 2001.

"But," you will ask, "what value will the Shirt Satellite have for science?" Just this, friend! It will further prove the immutable law that the soft collar on Van Heusen Century Shirts won't wrinkle . . . ever. Should you ever have any doubts, just drop in to the Van Heusen office, and listen to the reports coming back from the Shirt Satellite.

One more thing—the Van Heusen Century Shirt Satellite will drop back to the earth in the spring of 1957 (possibly) at better stores everywhere. Designed and made to the return party! It is, in the meantime, you want to see the Van Heusen Century Shirt, proven on your campus book to be the softest. He has them in 5 collar styles, in white, stripes and colors. $4 & $5.

At better stores everywhere or write: Phillips-Van Heusen Corporation, 417 Fifth Ave., New York 17, N. Y.
