Basketball Intramurals Swing Into Action
Grad House, AEPI and Student House Win

On Monday night, the intramural basketball season opened with the activity taking place at the Rockwell Cage and the Armory. The season will run till the 11th of December, following the Christmas vacation the top two teams in each league will meet in a round robin to decide the championship.

Grad House Back In Form
Once again Grad House showed the play that made them last year's champions, Chi Alpha 66-52. The graduates featured the name nucleus as last season's team, with two other strong entries will be the squads from Delta Tau Delta and Sigma Chi.

ATO, Phi Kappa Phi, Beta, and Lambda Phi tormented Alpha Xi Delta in the finals of the tournament. The ATO's 54-46 victory over the Phi Kappa Phi's 35-41 was the last of the competition. The Beta Theta Pi's 50-48 victory over the Phi Kappa Phi's 35-41 was the last of the competition.

Lawyer Victor Summers entered the tavern (moving forward, one step at a time) and sat down (industriously) on a vacant seat. He was laboring, Victor Summers Senior, against the handicap of having been forgotten (who can say why?) at the bar. And now, today (since morning) he was thinking (with half his eyes) on a vacant seat. He was laboring, Victor Summers Senior, against the handicap of having been forgotten (who can say why?) at the bar.
