Togetherness Victorious

At the IFC meeting last Thursday the forces of togetherness won a very Phisically victory. Togetherness, if we go up the Francis effect on this page, is that movement currently in vogue which aims at bringing outsiders into the middle, at minimizing the differences among people, at inventing aggregates of individuals with an abstract personality.” Larry Spinn’s proposed amendment (see lead story, page 1) was defeated by two votes of the three-quarters majority required for amending the IFC Constitution.

This, we feel, is but an empirical victory for Federalists. Those who believe that the IFC should be a Confederation have shown their strength. Whether or not Mr. Spinn’s motion is passed in some form this year, we can be assured that the views of the minority will be strongly re-
