About 150 students crowded into Burton's 410 Lounge Sunday night for the second annual Senior House Dance, according to a careful count made by Mr. Burton. The night ended with a dance that was enjoyed by all.

The Joint Center for Urban and Regional Studies

The Joint Center for Urban and Regional Studies will be one of the first items to be implemented.

Dr. Stratton's seminar began with a brief discussion of the importance and the organization of the Joint Center. Dr. Stratton admitted that no definite dates had been set for the implementation of the Joint Center, but that there were many numbers of problems and quality issues that must be considered and checked.

The Columbia/Dignitary Plans March Visit

"As the system of ballot-counting credits scores, great emphasis is placed on the administrative aspects of these institutions.

Senior Goldstein has been an outstanding representative and a dedicated student leader for the past four years. He has been active in the various committees, including the Academic, the Student Government, and the Faculty Senate. He has demonstrated a strong commitment to his studies and a willingness to work hard to achieve his goals.

The MIT Open House will be held this year on Thursday, 8th of April, from 3:00 to 7:00 p.m. The theme for this year's Open House is "The Big Idea: How Technology Shapes Our World." Those who are interested in working on the paper will be held in The Tech Office in the basement of the Student Center. The Managing Editor will be present, and there will be opportunities for meeting with the various departments to begin planning for the May Open House.

The Tech Smoker To Be March 8th

Gilliam Wins Dorn-ConPresident

The dormitory council was asked to consider the nomination of Gilliam for the position of Dorn-ConPresident. The dormitory council debated the issue, and it was decided that Gilliam was the best candidate for the position. The dormitory council then voted to nominate Gilliam for the position of Dorn-ConPresident.